 - (e) consider and provide advice about workload issues that affect employees at the college/school.

- 2.1.5 To avoid doubt and for the purposes of subclause 4(e), where there are individual or small group workload issues, they should be raised by the relevant employee(s) through the usual management processes that exist at the college/school.

Establishing an EBCC

- 2.1.6 The employer must establish an EBCC at each college/school if and while there are employees elected as members of the EBCC in accordance with subclause 11(b) and (c)(i) and (ii).
- 2.1.7 The process of forming an EBCC each year is initiated by the principal giving employees referred to in subclause 11(c) an opportunity to express an interest in being a member of the EBCC (expression of interest opportunity).
- 2.1.8 The principal must:
- (a) provide the expression of interest opportunity by the fifth week of Term 1; and
 - (b) if an EBCC must be established in accordance with subclause 6 for a particular school year, an EBCC meeting must take place by the end of Term 1.

2.1.9 The employer will determine:

- (a) the charter of the EBCC in consultation with EBCC; and
- (b) an allocation of time for meetings having regard to the hours of duty provisions.

Membership of EBCC

2.1.10 Membership of the EBCC is voluntary.

2.1.11 Subject to subclause 12, the EBCC will reflect the staffing structure of the college/school and must include:

- (a) two (2) persons appointed by the college/school employing authority;
- (b) one (1) union member elected by the IEUA college/school chapter;
- (c) three (3) members, one elected from each of the following staff areas:

2.1.13 If a member of the EBCC identified in subclause 11(c)(i), (ii) or (iii) withdraws from their membership of the EBCC during the year they have been elected, then the principal will provide, as soon as practicable, an expression of interest opportunity for that vacancy to be filled for the remainder of that year.

2.1.14 If the vacancy is not filled following the expression of interest opportunity in subclause 13, then the EBCC will continue for the remainder of the year provided there is:

- (a) at least 1 member on the EBCC from subclause 11(c)(i), (ii) or (iii); and
- (b) a union member pursuant to subclause 11(b),

still on the EBCC for the remainder of that year.

2.2 Consultation Regarding Major Workplace Change

Major Change

2.2.1 Where an employer has made an in-principle decision to introduce major changes in production, program, organisation, structure and/or to introduce new technology that is likely to have significant effects on employees, the employer will notify the employees who may be affected by the proposed changes and will undertake consultation as provided in this clause.

2.2.2 If a relevant employee appoints, or relevant employees appoint, a representative for the purposes of consultation and advises the employer of the identity of the representative, then the employer must recognise the representative.

2.2.3 Consultation must commence as early as practicable after an in-principle decision has been made by the employer to make the changes referred to in subclause 1.

2.2.4 The employer will consult with the employees affected and their representatives, if any, in relation to: the introduction of the changes referred to in subclause 1; the effects the changes are likely to have on employees; and measures to avert or mitigate the adverse effects of such changes on employees. For the purposes of the consultation, such information will be provided to relevant employees (and their representative(s)) in writing, however, the employer is not required to disclose confidential or commercially sensitive information.

- 2.2.5 The employer will give prompt consideration to matters raised by the employees and/or their representatives in relation to the changes as part of making a final decision.
- 2.2.6 In subclause 1, “significant effects” include: termination of employment; major changes in the composition, operation or size of the employer’s workforce or in the skills required; the elimination or diminution of job opportunities (including promotion opportunities or job tenure); the alteration of hours of work; the need for retraining or transfer of employees to other work or locations; and the restructuring of jobs.

- 2.2.8 Where an in-principle decision is made by the employer to contract out work currently being done by a school employee(s), that decision will be deemed to be a major change for the purposes of this clause. In such circumstances the employer will consult with the affected employee(s) and the relevant union(s) before a decision on this matter is finalised.
- Such consultation need not occur where contracting out is for circumstances such as temporary increased workflow or staff on leave and does not result in a school employee(s) being disadvantaged.
- Change to Regular Roster or Ordinary Hours of Work*
- 2.2.9 If the employer proposes to introduce a change to the regular roster or ordinary hours of work of employees:
- (a) the employer must notify the relevant employees of the proposed change; and

- 2.2.10 The relevant employees may appoint a representative for the purposes of the procedures in this clause.
- 2.2.11 If:

 - (b) the employee or employees advise the employer of the identity of the representative; the employer must recognise the representative.
- 2.2.12 As soon as practicable after proposing to introduce the change, the employer must:
- (a) discuss with the relevant employees the introduction of the change; and
 - (b) for the purposes of the discussion—provide to the relevant employees:
 - (i) all relevant information about the change, including the nature of the change; and
 - (ii) information about what the employer reasonably believes will be the effects of the change on the employees; and
 - (iii) information about any other matters that the employer reasonably believes are likely to affect the employees; and
 - (c) invite the relevant employees to give their views about the impact of the change (including any impact in relation to their family or caring responsibilities).
- 2.2.13 However, the employer is not required to disclose confidential or commercially sensitive information to the relevant employees.
- 2.2.14 The employer must give prompt and genuine consideration to matters raised about the change by the relevant employees.

2.3.4 School Based Trials

- (a) The change may be trialled by an employer in an endeavour to respond to issues of workload and intensity of work.
- (b) If the employer proposes a trial, then this will also be the subject of consultation with:
 - (i) all employees potentially affected by the trial; and
 - (ii) the EBCC referred to in clause 2.1 of the school.
- (c) Terms of reference will be established at the commencement of a trial and should include the following:

2.4 Procedures for Preventing and Settling Disputes

2.4.1 If a dispute relates to:

- (a) a matter arising under this Agreement;
- (b) the National Employment Standards; or
- (c) a matter between an employee(s) and an employer in respect to any industrial matter, this clause sets out procedures to settle the dispute.

2.4.2 An employee who is a party to the dispute may appoint a representative for the purposes of the procedures in this clause.

2.4.3 In the first instance, the parties to the dispute must try to resolve the dispute at the workplace level, by discussions between the employee or employees and relevant supervisors and/or management.

2.4.4 If discussions at the workplace level do not resolve the dispute, a party to the dispute may refer the matter to the Fair Work Commission.

2.4.5 The Fair Work Commission may deal with the dispute in 2 stages:

- (a) the Fair Work Commission will first attempt to resolve the dispute as it considers appropriate, including by mediation, conciliation, expressing an opinion or making a recommendation; and
- (b) if the Fair Work Commission is unable to resolve the dispute at the first stage, the Fair Work Commission may then:
 - (i) arbitrate the dispute; and
 - (ii) make a determination that is binding on the parties.

Note:

- If the Fair Work Commission arbitrates the dispute, it may also use the powers that are available to it under the Act.)
- A decision that the Fair Work Commission makes when arbitrating a dispute is a decision for the purpose of Division 3 of Part 5.1 of the Act. Therefore, an appeal may be made against the decision.

2.4.6 While the parties are trying to resolve the dispute using the procedures in this clause:

- (a) an employee must continue to perform his or her work as he or she would normally unless he or she has a reasonable concern about an imminent risk to his or her health or safety; and
- (b) an employee must comply with a direction given by the employer to perform other available work at the same workplace, or at another workplace, unless:
 - (i) the work is not safe; or
 - (ii) applicable occupational health and safety legislation would not permit the work to be performed; or
 - (iii) the work is not appropriate for the employee to perform; or
 - (iv) there are other reasonable grounds for the employee to refuse to comply with the direction.

- 2.4.7 To avoid doubt, the parties record that the reference to disputes or grievances in respect to any industrial matter includes disputes or grievances in relation to whether the employer had reasonable grounds for refusing a request under the NES for flexible working arrangements or an application to extend unpaid parental leave.
- 2.4.8 The parties to the dispute agree to be bound by a decision made by the Fair Work Commission in accordance with this clause.

2.5 Agreement Flexibility The FWC incorporated the model flexibility term instead of clause 2.5

- 2.5.1 Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, an employer and an individual employee may agree to vary the application of certain terms of this Agreement to meet the genuine individual needs of the employer and the individual employee. The terms the employer and the individual employee may agree to vary the application of are those concerning:
- (a) arrangements for when work is performed;
 - (b) allowances;
 - (c) leave loading;
 - (d) overtime rates; and
 - (e) penalty rates.
- 2.5.2 The employer and the individual employee must have genuinely made the agreement without coercion or duress.
- 2.5.3 The agreement between the employer and the individual employee must:
- (a) be confined to a variation in the application of one or more of the terms listed in subclause 1; and
 - (b) result in the employee being better off overall than the employee would have been if no individual flexibility agreement had been agreed to.
- 2.5.4 The agreement between the employer and the individual employee must also:
- (a) be in writing, name the parties to the agreement and be signed by the employer and the individual employee and, if the employee is under eighteen (18) years of age, the employee's parent or guardian;
 - (b) state each term of this agreement that the employer and the individual employee have agreed to vary;
 - (c) detail how the application of each term has been varied by agreement between the employer and the individual employee;
 - (d) detail how the agreement results in the individual employee being better off overall in relation to the individual employee's terms and conditions of employment; and
 - (e) state the date the agreement commences to operate.
- 2.5.5 The employer must give the individual employee a copy of the agreement and keep the agreement as a time and wages record.
- 2.5.6 Except as provided in subclause 4(a) the agreement must not require the approval or consent of a person other than the employer and the individual employee.
- 2.5.7 Where an employee or an employer seeks to enter into an agreement as provided by this clause, the initiating party must provide a written proposal. Where the employer initiates the proposal and where the employee's understanding of written English is limited, the employer must take measures, including translation into an appropriate language and the opportunity to seek advice and assistance, to ensure the employee understands the proposal.
- 2.5.8 The agreement may be terminated:
- (a) by the employer or the individual employee giving four (4) weeks' notice of termination, in writing, to the other party and the agreement ceasing to operate at the end of the notice period; or
 - (b) at any time, by written agreement between the employer and the individual employee.

- ~~2.5.9 The right to make an agreement pursuant to this clause is in addition to, and is not intended to otherwise affect, any provision for an agreement between an employer and an individual employee contained in any other term of this Agreement.~~

2.6 Redundancy

Consultation Before Terminations

- 2.6.1 Where an employer makes an in-principle decision that the employer no longer requires the job done by the employee to be done by anyone, and this is not due to the ordinary and customary turnover of labour, and that decision is likely to result in termination of employment, the employer will consult with the employee in accordance with clause 2.2 (Consultation Regarding Major Workplace Change) of this Agreement.

Transfer to Lower Paid Duties

- 2.6.2 Where an employee agrees to be transferred to lower paid duties for reasons set out in subclause 1, the employee is entitled to the same period of notice of transfer as the employee would have been entitled to if the employee's employment had been terminated.
- 2.6.3 For the purposes of subclause 2, the employer may, at the employer's option, make payment in lieu of an amount equal to the difference between the former amounts the employer would have been liable to pay and the new lower amount the employer is liable to pay the employee for the number of weeks of notice still owing.
- 2.6.4 For the purposes of subclause 3, the amounts must be worked out on the basis of:
- (a) the ordinary working hours to be worked by the employee; and

 - (c) any other amounts payable under the employee's employment contract.

- 2.6.6 If the employee has been allowed paid leave for more than one day during the notice period for the purpose of seeking other employment, the employee will, at the request of the employer, be required to produce proof of attendance at an interview or the employee will not receive payment for the time absent.
- 2.6.7 For the purposes of subclause 6, a statutory declaration will be sufficient.

Employee Leaving During Notice

- 2.6.8 An employee whose employment is terminated for reasons set out in subclause 1 may terminate such employment during the period of notice and, subject to subclause 9, be entitled to the same benefits and payments under this clause had the employee remained in employment with the employer until the expiry of such notice.
- 2.6.9 The employee will not be entitled to receive payment in lieu of any part of the notice period remaining after the employee ceased to be employed.

15 or More Employees Affected

- 2.6.10 For information purposes only, where a decision has been made to terminate 15 or more employees in the circumstances outlined in subclause 1, the Act outlines obligations for the employer to:
- (a) notify Centrelink; and

- (b) notify and consult the relevant union if reasonably expected to have known that one or more employees was a member of the union.

Redundancy Pay

- 2.6.11 In addition to the period of notice prescribed for ordinary termination, and subject to further order of the Fair Work Commission, an employee whose employment is terminated for reasons set out in subclause 1 is entitled to the following amounts of redundancy pay at the employee's base rate of pay for ordinary hours of work:

Period of Continuous Service	Redundancy Pay (weeks' pay)
Less than 1 year	nil

At least 9 years	16

- 2.6.12 "base rate of pay" has the same meaning as that outlined in section 16\(1\) of the Act.

Alternative Employment

- 2.6.13 An employer may make application to the Fair Work Commission in accordance with section 120 of the Act to have the prescribed redundancy pay in subclause 11 reduced (including to nil) if the employer:

(b) cannot pay.

3.1.2 Employees may be employed on multiple contracts of employment in accordance with clause 3.4 of this Agreement.

3.2 Job Share

The following provisions provide the minimum requirements for job share guidelines:

Definition	Job share is a voluntary arrangement in which a full-time continuing position, occupied by a full-time continuing employee, is divided between that employee and another suitable employee. Both employees will share responsibility for the position for a fixed-term period.
Principles underpinning the guidelines	Job share arrangements are arrangements entered into at an employee's initiative. No employee will be coerced into taking up or converting to such a position.
Size of school ratio	The number of job share positions offered in any school will not normally exceed one (1) to seven (7) – (one job share position to seven full-time positions). The employer may vary the ratio above the maximum of 1:7 where necessary or desirable.
Subsequent appointment	At the conclusion of the job share period both employees return to the position as designated in the relevant letter of appointment and the employment status each held before the job-share began.

Length of appointment	Job share positions are usually for one school year. Job share positions may be for shorter periods and may be negotiated at the end of each year for a subsequent period.
Arrangements	Arrangements of the job share position will be detailed in a document signed by the employer/Principal and employees and will include but not limited to: days/hours worked, communication protocols, planning time, non-contact time, excursions, parent – teacher interviews, assessment and reporting procedures, playground and bus duty, attendance at staff meetings, timetabled sport and related arrangements, and professional development. The arrangements should outline the protocols to be followed, if for whatever reason, one member of the job share is unable to continue in the position during the period of the job share.
Alterations to arrangements	Alterations to arrangements may be initiated by the employee/s or employer and need to be mutually agreed. Such alterations will require at least two weeks' notice or a shorter period by mutual agreement, before implementation.
Division of position	The position will generally be divided according to full days but other options may be mutually agreed between the employer and employees.
Rates of pay	Job share employees are to be remunerated on a pro rata basis according to their classification and include reference to any relevant allowances.
Pro rata conditions and benefits	Employees in job share positions will receive on a pro rata basis all entitlements in regard to: annual leave, annual leave loading, personal/carer's leave, long service leave, superannuation and all other relevant benefits and allowances. Where one employee in a job share position accesses personal/carer's leave or other short term leave the remaining employee will be offered the relief work. The method of remuneration associated with such relief work will be in accordance with the payment for additional hours that applies to the applicable part-time employee under this Agreement. Usual replacement conditions apply for leave such as long service leave, special leave and parental leave. Where situations of redundancy occur, redundancy provisions will apply to the job share incumbent/s.
Professional development	Job share employees are entitled to access professional development and promotion on the same basis as full-time employees.

Calculation of service	All work done by job-share employees counts towards incremental progression on a pro-rata basis.
Professional development planning days	Teacher job share employees are expected to attend professional development days as designated by the employer. The arrangements will specify remuneration arrangements for such attendance.

3.3 Fixed-Term Contracts – Teachers and School Officers

3.3.1 This clause applies to the use of fixed-term contracts for teachers and school officers

(a) Employing authorities are committed to ensure that:

- (i) fixed-term appointments are only used in circumstances where there is a specific identifiable short term need as detailed in subclause 5; and
- (ii) no employee, regardless of category or type of employment, will be employed as a matter of course on a fixed-term contract. To avoid doubt, “category or type of employment” includes: part-time employees; specialist teachers; graduate teachers; learning support employees; and those providing release for Senior Leadership.

(b) Employing authorities will conduct an annual review to identify those fixed-term positions which would more appropriately be designated as continuing positions.

3.3.2 Where a position is identified as a continuing position, an employee will be appointed to such a position on a continuing basis.

3.3.3 Subject to subclauses 5(a) and 10, the maximum period for a fixed-term contract is twelve (12) months or in the case of subclauses 5(e) or (f) for the balance of the calendar year.

3.3.4 It is recognised that in some exceptional circumstances an employee may accept appointment to a series of fixed-term appointments for a series of identifiable short term needs.

3.3.5 An employer will employ an employee on a fixed-term contract of employment only where the employee is appointed to cover an identifiable short term need. An identifiable short term need includes:

- 3.3.8 The letter of appointment will also contain the terms, conditions and specific duration (commencement and cessation dates) of the appointment.
- 3.3.9 Where the identifiable short term need exists after the twelve (12) month period, a further fixed-term appointment (no longer than twelve (12) months) may be agreed between the parties. Any agreement reached between an employer and an employee as prescribed by this clause will be in writing and signed by both parties:
- (a) where an employer receives short term funding for a specific purpose/project and that funding covers a specified period which is in excess of twelve (12) months then an employee may be appointed for that specified period of time; or
 - (b) where an employee is provided with a period of parental leave in accordance with clause 8.8 (Unpaid Parental Leave) of this Agreement which is in excess of twelve (12) months then an employee may be appointed on a fixed-term contract for that specified period of time; or
 - (c) where an employee commences on a specified period of approved leave (paid and/or unpaid) which is in excess of twelve (12) months then an employee may be appointed on a fixed-term contract for that specified period of time.
- 3.3.10 Where an employee is employed on a fixed-term basis but they believe their employment is not consistent with subclause 5 or if they believe the criteria for their fixed-term employment has changed they may apply to the employer for continuing status.
- 3.3.11 Application Procedure
- (a) Such written application will contain the original reason the employee was given for appointment (where known), information regarding any changed circumstances relevant to the application and the length of time employed on a fixed-term contract.
 - (b) The employer will consider the written request for conversion to continuing status and notify the employee in writing of the decision within one month.
 - (c) If after receiving the employer's notification, the employee believes that their position has not been correctly designated, the employee may seek to resolve the matter in accordance with the formal procedure for preventing and settling disputes contained at clause 2.4 of the collective Agreement. Employees may be assisted by the representative of their choice, including the employee's union.
- 3.3.12 Notwithstanding the above, fixed-term employees are entitled to apply for any other continuing position advertised in accordance with the normal employment processes identified by the relevant employer.

3.4 Multiple Contracts of Employment

3.4.1 Employees may be engaged on separate contracts of employment where any subsequent contract(s) is for a separate and distinct category of work.

3.4.2 For the purposes of subclause 1, separate and distinct categories of work include:

- (a) teachers, except resident teachers (refer clause S3.13 of Schedule 3 of this Agreement);

3.4.3 An employee may only be employed on separate and distinct contracts:

- (a) on a voluntary basis;
- (b) where the effects of entering into such an arrangement have been explained by the employer; and
- (c) the separate and distinct contracts are recorded in writing and signed by the employee.

3.4.4 Where an employee is employed on separate and distinct contracts of employment, that employee will be paid for the subject work at the applicable rate prescribed by this Agreement for that work.

3.4.5 Where an employee subject to this clause is employed for a total number of hours that are in excess of the maximum hours permitted by this Agreement, overtime provisions will apply for the excess hours.

3.4.6 For the purposes of subclause 5, the maximum hours permitted by this Agreement refers to any hours in excess of 1.0 full-time equivalent (FTE) when the FTE of each separate contract is added together.

Note –

Maximum weekly hours:

- For teachers - see clause Schedule 3 of this Agreement;

Isolated characteristics should not be used to justify the classification of a position.

They are an indicative guide only and at any particular level employees may be expected to undertake duties of any level lower than their own. Employees at any particular level may perform/utilise one such duty/skill or many of them depending on the particular work allocated to them. Typical duties/skills should not be used as the primary determinant in classifying employees but may be useful if the characteristics of a level cannot be easily applied in an individual instance.

5.9.6 Some of the characteristics have been included in the typical skills/duties at each level. Where there is inconsistency between the characteristics and the typical skills/duties, the characteristics will prevail over the typical skills/duties.

- (a) The key issue to be looked at in properly classifying an employee is the level of initiative, responsibility/accountability, competency and skill that an employee is required to exercise in performing the employee's work within the parameters of the characteristics, read as a whole, of the position.

- (b) It should be noted that some typical duties/skills appear at one level only while others appear at more than one level. Because of this, the classification or reclassification of a position needs to be done by reference to the specific characteristics of the level. As an example, because an employee may be utilising a skill comprehended at a higher level than that to which the employee has been appointed, the employee assumes the level of initiative, accountability/responsibility, skill and competency envisaged by the characteristics of the higher level.

5.10 Classification of School Officers – Transition to New Structure

5.10.1 In accordance with subclause 2, school officers will transition to the classification structure outlined in Schedule 9 (the new structure) during the operation of this Agreement.

5.10.2 Employers will make best endeavours for school officers to transition to the new structure as follows:

- (a) Instructional Services – Music, howsoever described – by the commencement of the 2024 school year;
- (b) Classroom Support, howsoever described – by 30 June 2024;
- (c) All other school officers – by 31 December 2024.

5.10.3 An employer will transition the school officers through the following process:

- (a) an analysis is to be undertaken to establish the skills and responsibilities required for each role to be recorded in a position description;
- (b) each position is classified at, and will transition to, the applicable level outlined in the new structure by reference to the position description and the processes outlined in Schedule 9 (new transitioned level); and
- (c) the new transitioned level will be paid at the corresponding wage level outlined in Schedule 1.5 (School Officers).

Example - If a school officer is classified in the current structure at level 3 and transitions to the new structure at level 3, there will be no change in the wages paid to the school officer.

5.10.4 If the position of a school officer:

- (a) does not transition to the new structure by the relevant date outlined in subclause 2; and
- (b) transitions to a higher level in the new structure compared to the current structure, then the school officer will be entitled to be paid at the higher level from the first full pay period after the dates outlined in subclause 5.

5.10.5 For the purposes of subclause 4, the relevant dates are as follows:

- (a) for employees outlined in subclause 2(a) – 22 January 2024;
- (b) for employees outlined in subclause 2(b) – 8 July 2024; and
- (c) for employees outlined in subclause 2(c) – 27 January 2025.

5.10.6 If the position of a school officer transitions to the new structure at a level lower than the level that applied in the current structure, then the employee will continue to be:

- (a) paid at the wage level outlined in Schedule 1.5 (School Officers) that the employee was receiving at the level that applied in the current structure; and
- (b) entitled to:
 - (i) wage increases in accordance with clause 5.11 of this Agreement; and
 - (ii) incremental advancement within that level, if applicable, in accordance with clause 5.14.

5.10.7 Once a school officer has transitioned to the new structure, the current structure will have no application to that school officer, but all other provisions of this Agreement relating to school officers will continue to apply.

Review of Transitions

5.10.8 Any anomalies that may arise from the above transition process will, in the first instance, be the subject of negotiation between the relevant parties.

5.10.9 Where an agreement cannot be reached on how to rectify an anomaly, the matter may be processed through clause 2.4 (Procedures for Preventing and Settling Disputes) of this Agreement.

- (b) provides the documentary evidence referred to in subclause 5 after 6 months of commencing the appointed role, then the relevant paypoint adjustment will take effect from the date of receipt by the employer of the documentary evidence.

5.14 Increments

For example, cleaners and security employees are each considered separate “particular category of general employee”. Accordingly, if the employer agrees with a majority of the cleaners at one campus of a multi-campus school, then their daily span of hours can be varied to 5.30am and 5.30pm with the 12 hours within the span being unchanged.

 - (b) adjacent to a meal break unless the employee and the employer agree.

- 5.22.1 An employee is entitled to a minimum break of 10 consecutive hours between the end of one period of duty and the beginning of the next, which applies to both ordinary hours and where overtime is worked.

- (a) the employee is engaged to work hours in accordance with multiple contracts (see clause 3.4 of this Agreement); and

- 5.25.1 Time off in lieu of overtime (TOIL) can only apply to overtime that that would be paid at the rate of 150% of the hourly rate in accordance with subclause 2.
- 5.25.2 An employee and employer may agree in writing to the employee taking time off in lieu (TOIL) instead of being paid overtime in accordance with subclause 1 that has been worked by the employee. To avoid doubt, such an agreement may relate to a portion of overtime worked on a day.

- 5.25.6 If an employee gives notice of resignation, then TOIL must be taken prior to the resignation date unless extenuating circumstances exist.
- 5.25.7 If:
- (a) extenuating circumstances exist in relation to an employee's resignation; or
 - (b) the employer terminates the employee,
- any accrued TOIL not taken by the date the termination takes effect will be paid:
- (c) to the employee at 150% of the hourly rate; and
 - (d) as part of the termination payment referred to in clause 5.31 of this Agreement.

- CPI for March 2025 is 3.5%. (see definition in subclause 1.1.3(e))
- 3.5% - 3% = 0.5% (see subclause 1.1.5(a))
- $X\% = 100/(1 + 0.03) = 97.09\%$ of $60,000 = $58,254 (see subclause 1.1.5(c))

- 7.3.2 Employees can choose to have their contributions paid to any complying superannuation fund.
- 7.3.3 Where an employee does not:

- the employer will make contributions on their behalf to one of the following superannuation funds or its successor:
- (c) Uni Super Limited; or
 - (d) NGS Super Pty Limited.
- 7.3.4 The employer will contribute 12.75% (inclusive of the superannuation guarantee charge outlined in superannuation legislation) into an employee’s superannuation fund (from subclauses 2 or 3) from the first full pay period on or after the date this Agreement comes into operation.
- 7.3.5 An employee may make voluntary before tax contributions in accordance with the salary packaging provisions.

7.4 Salary Package into Superannuation Funds

- 7.4.1 Employees will be permitted to elect to salary package into an approved superannuation fund, subject to compliance with superannuation legislation. Where the employer and individual employee agree an additional contribution may be made into a complying superannuation fund within the range of funds offered by the employer. This Agreement will be subject to the following provisos:
- (a) the fund(s) comply with the provisions of the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993;
 - (b) the implementation of any such arrangements will be at the discretion of the employer;
 - (c) the contribution will be expressed as either a dollar amount or as a percentage;
 - (d) such salary packaging arrangements will be available to all employees with the exception of casual employees. Notwithstanding the forgoing, an employer, at their discretion, may make these arrangements available to casual employees;
 - (e) the funds will accept electronic funds transfer;
 - (f) any arrangements as set out in this clause will be at the employee’s request;
 - (g) the terms of the arrangement will be committed to writing and signed by the employer and the employee;
 - (h) a copy of the signed Agreement will be held by the employer and a copy provided to the employee;
 - (i) this arrangement may be altered only once per annum; and

- (j) the employer will apply a Total Employment Cost (TEC) approach to make payments under the Salary Packaging Agreement.

- 7.4.2 The employee's TEC will be the sum of the base salary, leave loadings, locality allowances where they apply and superannuation contributions being met by the employer;
- 7.4.3 The parties acknowledge that within the limits prescribed in this clause the implementation of any salary packaging arrangement will be at the discretion of the employer.
- 7.4.4 Notwithstanding the foregoing, the costs of administration of salary packaging for the purpose of superannuation only will be met by the employer.

7.5 Salary Packaging – Other than to Superannuation

- 7.5.1 The employing authority agrees to the implementation of salary packaging for components other than superannuation. Administrative guidelines will be made available to all employees.
- 7.5.2 Where agreement is reached between the employer and the employee, salary packaging arrangements may be made between the individual employee and the employer and shall be recorded in writing.
- 7.5.3 Where such an agreement is reached, the employee's total salary shall be reduced by an amount equivalent to that agreed between the employer and employee plus any relevant tax liability including fringe benefits tax incurred by the employer.
- 7.5.4 The employee's salary used to calculate superannuation contributions, leave loading, long service leave, severance and termination payment entitlements, will be the gross base salary as per Schedule 1 (Wages, Salaries and Allowances) of this Agreement the employee would receive if not taking part in the salary packaging arrangement.
- 7.5.5 The maximum amount allowable for salary packaging purposes shall be in accordance with the provisions of the Australian Taxation Office.
- 7.5.6 Salary packaging arrangements may be altered once per annum.
- 7.5.7 The employing authority reserves the right to outsource the administration of salary packaging arrangements to a provider appointed by the employing authority.
- 7.5.8 The employing authority will meet the cost associated with the transmission of approved funds to the service provider. The costs of administration will be borne by the employee in regard to their own package.
- 7.5.9 Where the employing authority determines that it will internally administer the salary packaging, the costs borne by the employee will be consistent with the costs of administering the elements in the package and will be consistent with that which would be charged by an outsourcer for an equivalent package.
- 7.5.10 Components of Superannuation Packaging
- (a) The following sub-clause applies to the Religious Institute Boys' School employers:
- Components that may be subject to salary packaging arrangements shall be specified by the employing authority and may include, but are not limited to: mobile phones; laptop computers; self-education expenses; motor vehicles; childcare expenses; work related equipment; accident or income protection insurance premiums; technical journal subscriptions; uniforms; protective clothing; union fees or professional association fees. The employing authority shall notify in writing those items which may be included in the salary package.

- (b) The following sub-clause applies to the Religious Institute Girls' School employers:

Components which may be subject to salary packaging arrangements will be determined in consultation with employees and will be at the employing authority's discretion.

7.6 Deferred Salary Scheme

- 7.6.1 Employees who have completed three (3) consecutive years' full-time service with the employer at the time of application may apply to be included in a deferred salary scheme. The scheme will enable employees, over a five-year period, to receive eighty per cent (80%) salary for the first four (4) continuous years of the nominated period, and take the fifth (5th) year as special leave, using the accumulated reserves of deferred salary.
- 7.6.2 The following principles for the scheme will apply:
- (a) an employee will make application to participate in the deferred salary scheme a minimum of three (3) calendar months before such participation is to begin.
 - (b) to be eligible for participation in the deferred salary scheme, employees must seek advice from a qualified financial advisor and superannuation fund regarding individual implications for taxation and superannuation.
 - (c) the fifth (5th) year of any deferred salary agreement must be taken as special leave. The rate of pay will be the accumulated surplus retained over the preceding four (4) years. Deferred salary benefits cannot be accrued beyond the five (5) years of the agreement. Any interest on the accrued deferred salary component will be utilised to offset the cost of the scheme.
 - (d) an employee will not, during any period in which the employee is on such special leave, engage in any other remunerative employment of a kind performed by the employee in the employment from which the employee was granted special leave.
 - (e) superannuation entitlements and employer contribution rates will be governed by the relevant Superannuation Guarantee Contribution legislative provisions (that is, the SGC component will be paid on the four (4) years worked and paid);
 - (f) the five (5) year agreement period counts as four (4) years' service for the purpose of accruing long service leave;
 - (g) the employee's substantive position will be preserved for the fifth (5th) (special leave) year.
 - (h) any outstanding long service leave entitlements of ten (10) weeks or more can be taken as part of the fifth (5th) special year;
 - (i) any employee who withdraws from the scheme will be paid the exact monies contributed to the scheme, with no interest payable. These funds will be paid as a lump sum unless otherwise negotiated with the employer;
 - (j) without prejudicing any other circumstances where an employee withdraws from the scheme, an employee who ceases to be employed by the employer will be deemed to have withdrawn from the scheme at the cessation of such employment, unless otherwise agreed; and
 - (k) the employee is not covered by workers compensation during the fifth (special leave) year.
- 7.6.3 Participation in the scheme is to be requested by application from the employee.
- (a) Approval or rejection of the application will be determined at the employer's discretion.
 - (b) The employee will be formally advised of the employer's decision within one month of the application being made.

7.7 Employee Records and Pay Slips

- 7.7.1 The requirements for maintaining employee records and pay slips are outlined in the Act and regulations made under the Act and a summary is available on the website of the Fair Work Ombudsman.
- 7.7.2 This subclause applies to Religious Institute Girls School employers who agree to the implementation of measures to provide all employees with details of leave accruals where the employing authority does not currently provide such details on pay advice slips:
- (a) where information concerning the accrual of personal leave and annual leave is not currently reported on pay slips, the employing authority will respond to employee requests for this information within twenty-one (21) days of receipt of the request;
 - (b) where the capacity to report on these accruals currently does not exist, the employing authority will work towards achieving this capacity within the life of the Agreement;
 - (c) employees who currently receive such information on pay advice slips shall continue to be provided with such information on pay advice slips; and
 - (d) employing authorities will advise employees when they are eligible for long service leave. They will respond to requests from employees for an assessment of current long service leave accrual within twenty-one (21) days of receipt of the request.
- 7.7.3 This clause applies to Religious Institute Boys School employers who will provide information twice annually regarding annual leave and personal leave accruals where employees so request:
- (a) where information concerning the accrual of personal leave and annual leave is not currently reported on pay slips, the employing authority will provide the information on employee request within twenty-one (21) days excluding the end-of-year vacation period; and
 - (b) where the capacity to record these accruals on pay slips currently does not exist, the employing authority will work towards achieving this capacity within the life of the Agreement. The employing authority will advise an employee when they are eligible for long service leave. It will provide information, on request from an employee, in a statement of current long service leave accruals, within twenty-one (21) days excluding the end-of-year vacation period.
- 7.7.4 Employees will have access to payslips and leave balances online through 'Web Self Service'. However, where it is not reasonable or convenient for an employee to access this information online, the employer will make available the provision of this information as a 'paper' pay slip.
- 7.7.5 The employer will use its best endeavours to ensure that the leave balances made available to employees are accurate. There may be occasions where delays in the provision of information to the employers' payroll area may result in information which is not up to date. Consequently, employees will use the information so provided as a guide and will be able to seek specific identification of entitlements as required.

7.8 Overpayments

- 7.8.1 If an employee is overpaid, the employer will have the right to recover such an overpayment in accordance with this clause and/or in accordance with other legal actions that are available.
- Current Employees*
- 7.8.2 Where the employer seeks to recover an overpayment, the employer may contact the employee in writing to request that a reasonable repayment schedule be agreed to deduct monies from the employer payments to the employee in relation to the performance of work to recover the overpayment.

- 7.8.3 The employer and employee cannot unreasonably withhold agreement to a reasonable repayment schedule proposed by either party in accordance with subclause 2.
- 7.8.4 To avoid doubt, subclause 2 does not prevent the parties from reaching agreement to recover the debt by means other than deductions from employer payments to the employee, such as the employee agreeing to pay the overpayments by lump sum payment(s).
- 7.8.5 If a party believes the other party is unreasonably withholding agreement to a reasonable repayment schedule for the purposes of subclause 2, then that party can raise a dispute to be dealt with in accordance with clause 2.4 (Procedures for Preventing and Settling Disputes) of this Agreement.
- 7.8.6 If the Fair Work Commission arbitrates the dispute and makes a determination that is binding on the parties in accordance with clause 2.4.5 of this Agreement about an amount that is to be deducted from the employer payments to the employee in relation to the performance of work to recover the overpayment, then that deduction will be authorised by the employee for the purposes of section 323(b) of the Act.

Terminating Employees

- 7.8.7 If, at the date of termination of an employee's services, it is clearly established and accepted by the employee that the employee owes the employer money (for example, in the case of overpayment of wages), the employer is entitled to and may withhold from monies due to the employee, as either wages or leave entitlements, an amount equivalent to the overpayment if authorised by the employee, which cannot be unreasonably withheld.

PART 8 LEAVE

8.1 Annual Leave – Teachers

- 8.1.1 The NES provide that an employee (other than a shift worker) is entitled to four weeks annual leave.
- 8.1.2 For teachers, annual leave will be deemed to be taken, in the case of an employee whose employment with the employer is continuing into the next school year, in the four weeks immediately following the final term week of the current school year, unless otherwise agreed between the employer and the employee.

8.2 Annual Leave Loading – Teachers

- 8.2.1 A teacher who has worked (or has been granted paid leave by the employer) for each day of the school year at the particular school will receive an annual leave loading equivalent to seventeen and a half percent (17.5%) of four (4) weeks' salary calculated upon the salary which such employee was receiving immediately before commencing the Christmas vacation.
- 8.2.2 Where a teacher:
- (a) does not work for the full school year as referred to in subclause 1; and
 - (b) has completed at least one full term of teaching (including paid leave granted by the employer),
- the teacher will be paid a proportion of the annual leave loading prescribed in subclause 1 that the teacher's service excluding school vacations bears to a standard school year.
- 8.2.3 For the purposes of subclause 2:
- (a) the proportion of salary will be calculated on the salary which the employee was receiving either immediately before cessation of employment or immediately before the Christmas vacation period as applicable; and
 - (b) a standard school year for a teacher with the employer is calculated as prescribed in clause 4.7.3(b) of this Agreement (Proportion of Full Year Salary).
- 8.2.4 For the purposes of this clause, salaries will be regarded as including allowances prescribed by Schedule 1.
- 8.2.5 Annual leave loading for a teacher will be paid to an employee by one of the following applicable methods:
- (a) as part of a termination payment;
 - (b) in employer designated pay periods in December each year, or
 - (c) where an employee has a salary packaging arrangement (in accordance with clause 7.5) it may be agreed that the loading be paid fortnightly in the regular pay periods.

8.3 Annual Leave and Loading – General Employees

8.3.1 Entitlements

- (b) The accrual rate of annual leave for full-time employees will be one hundred and fifty-two (152) hours per annum (i.e. four (4) weeks annual leave per annum on a thirty-eight (38) hour week basis).
- (c) An employee's entitlement to paid annual leave accrues progressively during a year of service according to the employee's ordinary hours of work, and accumulates from year to year. Service includes a period when annual leave is taken by the employee. The calculation of the entitlement to such leave is set out in paragraphs (d) and (e).
- (d) Part-time and fixed-term employees will at the end of the initial school year in which they are employed be entitled to annual leave calculated as follows:

- (i) annual leave due to the employee will be determined using the following formula:

$$\frac{A}{\text{Fifty-two (52)}} \times \text{Four (4) weeks} = \text{weeks of annual leave}$$

Where: A = number of weeks worked during that year

- (ii) the number of weeks of annual leave determined using the formula in subparagraph (i) will be paid for as follows:

weeks of annual leave x B x the hourly rate applicable at the time

Where B = average hours worked per week during that year

- (e) Part-time and fixed-term employees will at the end of each subsequent school year in which they are employed be entitled to annual leave calculated as follows:

- (i) annual leave due to the employee will be determined using the following formula:

$$\frac{C}{\text{Fifty-two (52)}} \times \text{Four (4) weeks} = \text{weeks of annual leave}$$

Where: C = number of weeks worked during that year plus the number of weeks of annual leave determined using the formula in paragraph (d)(i).

- (ii) The number of weeks of annual leave determined using the formula in paragraph (d)(i) will be paid for as follows:

weeks of annual leave x B x the hourly rate applicable at the time

Where B = average hours worked per week during that year

- (f) Annual leave for term-time employees will be calculated and paid in accordance with the relevant provisions of Schedule 11.
- (g) Annual leave will be taken by all employees during school vacation periods unless otherwise agreed between the employer and employee.

- (h) If an employee and employer so agree, annual leave may be taken wholly or partly in advance before the employee has become entitled to annual leave.
- (i) An employee, who has taken in advance the whole of the annual leave that would be due at the end of a year of employment, is not entitled to any further annual leave at the end of that year of employment.
- (j) An employee, who has taken in advance part of the annual leave that would be due at the end of a year of employment, becomes entitled at the end of that year of employment to the part of the annual leave not already taken.

8.3.2 Calculation of Annual Leave Pay

- (a) In respect to annual leave entitlements to which this clause, annual leave pay (including any proportionate payments) will comprise:
 - (i) the employee's ordinary wage rate as prescribed by the Agreement for the period of the annual leave; and
 - (ii) a further amount calculated at the rate of seventeen and a half per cent (17.5%) of the amounts referred to in paragraph (a)(i) (annual leave loading).
- (b) Subclause 2 (a) will not apply to:
 - (i) any period or periods of leave exceeding four (4) weeks per annum in any other case; and
 - (ii) employers (and their employees) who are already paying (or receiving) an annual leave bonus, loading or other annual leave payment which is not less favourable to employees.

8.3.3 Annual leave loading for a general employee will be paid by one of the following methods:

- (b) where an employee has a salary packaging arrangement (in accordance with clause 7.5) it may be agreed that the loading be paid fortnightly in the regular pay periods.

8.3.4 Termination (employees other than casuals)

- (a) If any employee will be dismissed by the employer or resign after any leave will have become due, and without such leave having been taken, such employee will be entitled in lieu thereof to a sum equal to salary computed at the rate of wages which the employee was earning at the date of such dismissal or leaving calculated in accordance with subclause 2.
- (b) If any such leave will not have been taken as it falls due from time to time, such leave will be cumulative from year to year.

8.3.5 Cashing-Out Annual Leave

- (a) A general employee may apply, to the employer, in writing to cash-out a proportion of their accrued annual leave instead of taking this leave and the criteria governing such an application are as follows:
 - (i) at least four (4) weeks accrued annual leave must be retained at any point of time to use as annual leave in the usual manner;
 - (ii) each payment of a particular amount of accrued annual leave must be by separate written agreement between the employee and the employer;
 - (iii) the employee may apply to combine the cash-out of some annual leave with the taking of some annual leave. In this case, the time taken in annual leave may be deducted from the minimum retained four (4) weeks leave;

 - (v) the notice period required to cash-out some annual leave only is a minimum of four (4) weeks (or less by mutual agreement with the employer);

 - (viii) the employee is paid at least the full amount that would have been payable to the employee had the employee taken the leave that the employee has forgone.
- (b) If an application to cash out annual leave is approved, the employer will provide to the employee written confirmation of such approval. The existing arrangements for making application for annual leave would continue in the present form.
- (c) To avoid doubt, any agreement to cash-out annual leave in accordance with this clause can only be initiated by the employee.

8.3.6 Direction to Take Excess Annual Leave

- (a) In circumstances where a general employee's accrued annual leave balance exceeds eight (8) weeks or equivalent hours, the employer may direct this employee to take the full period of annual leave that exceeds the eight (8) weeks, or part thereof.
- (b) The quantum of annual leave in excess of eight (8) weeks subject of a direction will be at the discretion of the employer.
- (c) Prior to giving a direction to take leave as provided for in paragraph (a), the employer will consult with the employee and attempt to obtain an agreement as to when such annual leave will be taken.
- (d) The consultation will include consideration of the following:
 - (i) the needs of the employee;
 - (ii) the needs of the school;
 - (iii) the employee's future intentions regarding the taking of annual leave;
 - (iv) any agreed arrangement with the employee;
 - (v) the custom and practice in the school;
 - (vi) the timing of the requirement or direction to take leave; and
 - (vii) the reasonableness of the period of notice given by the employee to take leave.
- (e) In the absence of an agreement with the employee, the employer will determine when the annual leave is to be taken, provided that the employee is given notice of at least three (3) calendar months.

8.4 Long Service Leave

This clause is to read in conjunction with Schedule 16 (Long Service Leave – Teachers).

8.4.1 Accrual of Long Service Leave

- (a) Teaching staff will accrue long service leave at the rate of 1.3 weeks per year of continuous service in accordance with the provisions of Schedule 16 (Long Service Leave – Teachers).
- (b) Other staff will accrue long service leave at the rate of 1.3 weeks per year of continuous service from 1 January 1998.

8.4.2 Access to Long Service Leave

- (a) Employees are entitled to access their accrued long service leave after completing seven (7) years of continuous service. An employee is entitled to access subsequent leave, where that employee has an entitlement of four (4) weeks or more. All applications for leave will be in accordance with the provisions for taking of such leave.
- (b) An employee who has completed at least seven (7) years of continuous service is entitled to a proportionate payment for long service leave on the termination of the employee's service.
- (c) A casual employee who is entitled to long service leave will have the entitlement calculated as follows:
$$\text{Actual service} / 52 \times 1.3 = \text{entitlement in hours}$$
- (d) "Actual service" in subparagraph (c) means the total ordinary hours actually worked by the casual employee during the period of continuous service.
- (e) The minimum period of leave that may be taken by an employee is normally one (1) week.
 - (i) In some clearly identified and demonstrated exceptional circumstances an employer may approve an application for a period less than one (1) week, but not less than one (1) day.
 - (ii) Where the period of long service leave is less than a school term (nominally ten (10) weeks) that leave should normally be taken wholly within the school term period.
 - (iii) Non-teaching term-time employees may access accrued long service leave during periods of unpaid leave, including school vacations.
- (f) Where an employee applies to access a period of long service leave of one week or more, that employee will be required to make application at least twenty (20) weeks prior to the proposed commencement date for the leave. This period of notice may be reduced by mutual agreement between the employer and the employee. The employer's right to make the final decision will not be diminished by this arrangement.
- (g) Where an employee applies to access a period of long service leave of less than one week that employee will be required to make application at least four (4) weeks prior to the proposed commencement date for the leave. This period of notice may be reduced by mutual agreement between the employer and the employee. In emergent circumstances, where an employee is unable to provide four (4) weeks' notice, the application will be made as soon as practicable.

8.4.3 Employer Direction to Take Long Service Leave

- (a) In the first instance an employee and employer may agree when the employee is to take Long Service Leave and this will normally occur through the employee applying, in accordance with subclause 2, to access their leave.
- (b) Subject to paragraph (c), an employer may direct an employee who has accrued long service leave after completing at least 10 years of continuous service to take a period of leave provided the direction:
 - (i) is to take at least 1 full school term; and
 - (ii) gives the employee written notice of at least twenty (20) weeks.
- (c) Before directing an employee to take the leave, discussions must first occur between the employer and the employee in a genuine attempt to achieve agreement as to when such leave is to be taken.
- (d) Any period of long service leave taken by an employee is exclusive of any public holiday(s), and/or paid vacation periods.

8.4.4 Interaction between personal/carer's leave and long service leave

- (a) An employee may request to have a period of long service leave re-credited and personal/carer's leave used instead for a period of illness or care or support in accordance with clause 8.5.4(a)(i) or (ii) (Taking Personal/Carer's Leave), whilst the employee is on long service leave.
- (b) An employee is entitled to have the period of long service leave re-credited where the period of illness or care or support referred to in paragraph (a), is one (1) calendar week (seven (7) days) or more and the request is accompanied by a medical certificate or other appropriate proof of the reason for the request.

8.4.5 When an employee has a period of long service leave re-credited as provided in subclause 4, the actual period of absence from work will not normally be extended.

8.4.6 The employer will consider the particular circumstances of applications for periods of leave without pay to be taken in conjunction with long service leave. Such applications will be considered in conjunction with existing guidelines for leave without pay.

8.4.7 Long Service Leave at Half Pay

- (a) Accrued Long Service Leave (LSL) may be accessed at half pay and the employee will be entitled to double the period of leave which would otherwise be applicable.
- (b) The period of LSL at half pay will be paid for at half the rate which would have been applicable if the employee were not accessing LSL at half pay.
- (c) Where an employee accesses LSL at half pay that employee's current ordinary hours will be deemed to be halved and all entitlements will accrue on that pro rata basis.
- (d) The facility to access long service leave at half pay is not available to employees where the time to be taken is less than four (4) weeks.
- (e) Where an employee accesses long service leave at half pay and where a salary packaging agreement exists, this agreement will be honoured or renegotiated. Any associated costs will be borne by the employee consistent with current salary packaging arrangements.
- (f) A period of LSL at half pay will be exclusive of public holidays. A public holiday occurring during a period of LSL at half pay, and which falls on a day on which the subject employee would otherwise work, will be paid for at half the rate which would have been applicable if the employee were not accessing LSL at half pay.

- (g) Where an employee on a period of LSL at half pay becomes ill or is required to provide care and support in accordance with clause 8.5 (Taking Personal/Carer's Leave), the provisions of subclause 4 will apply, except that the:
- (i) period of personal/carers leave will be paid for at half the rate which would have been applicable if the employee were not accessing LSL at half pay;
 - (ii) quantum of LSL re-credited to the employee will be half that which would have been applicable if the employee were not accessing LSL at half pay; and
 - (iii) quantum of personal/carers leave debited from the employee's personal/carers leave account will be half that which would have been applicable if the employee were not accessing LSL at half pay.
- (h) The provisions of this clause will apply to teachers who access a period of LSL at half pay:
- (i) a period of LSL at half pay will be exclusive of school vacations.
 - (ii) school vacations (except for the Christmas vacation) which are within a period of LSL at half pay will be paid for at half the rate which would have been applicable if the employee were not accessing LSL at half pay.
 - (iii) school vacations (except for the Christmas vacation) which are contiguous with a period of LSL at half pay will be paid for at the rate which would have been applicable if the employee were not accessing LSL at half pay.
 - (iv) where a teacher accesses a period of LSL at half pay which is wholly within one calendar year (as defined in paragraph (v) below), that employee will be paid a sum for the Christmas vacation calculated in accordance with the following formula:

$$P = \frac{L}{W} \times S - A$$

Where:

- P Is the total amount paid to the employee for the Christmas vacation.
 - L Is the number of weeks actually worked plus the number of weeks debited from the employees LSL account.
 - W Is the number of weeks the teacher would have worked if they had not accessed LSL.
 - S Is the total amount which would have been paid for the calendar year if the employee were not accessing LSL at half pay.
 - A Is the total amount paid to the teacher in that calendar year prior to the Christmas vacation.
- (v) for the purposes of this clause, "calendar year" will be defined in one of two ways, depending on the method of employing teachers used by a particular employer. Where an employer employs teachers from 1 January to 31 December, then that is the definition of calendar year to be used in relation to that employer for the purposes of paragraph (iv). Where an employer employs teachers from the beginning of term one to the day before the beginning of term one in the following year, then that is the definition of calendar year to be used in relation to that employer for the purposes of paragraph (iv).

- (vi) where a teacher accesses a period of LSL at half pay and that period extends across two calendar years, that employee will be paid in accordance with this subparagraph. For the Christmas vacation at the end of each calendar year the employee will be paid a sum calculated in accordance with the formula prescribed in paragraph (iv). All other school vacations (including, where applicable, the Christmas vacation at the beginning of a calendar year) which are within a period of LSL at half pay will be paid for at half the rate which would have been applicable if the employee were not accessing LSL at half pay.

8.4.8 Portability of Long Service Leave

- (a) Long service leave accruals with Queensland Catholic education employing authorities from the nominated date will be portable subject to paragraph (d).
- (b) For teachers the “nominated date” described in paragraphs (a) and (d) is the date identified in Schedule 16 (Long Service Leave – Teachers), paragraphs S16.3 (b), (c), (d) and (e) as appropriate for teachers who were employed at that date (or subsequently) by the employers identified in those paragraphs.
- (c) For school officers and services staff the “nominated date” described in paragraphs (a) and (d) is 1 January 2004.
- (d) For the purposes of portability of long service leave:
 - (i) all continuous service with the employee’s employer as at the nominated date will be portable for the purpose of long service leave accrual; and
 - (ii) all continuous service, from the nominated date, with a Catholic education employer will be portable for the purpose of long service leave accrual; and
 - (iii) there must be continuity of service (as defined by the Industrial Relations Act 2016 (Qld)) between Catholic education employing authorities.

8.4.9 Cashing Out Long Service Leave

Employees who are eligible to access their accruals of long service leave (i.e. after seven (7) years’ service) may apply, to the employer, in writing to “cash out” a proportion of such leave instead of taking leave. Provided that:

- (a) at least five (5) weeks must be retained at any point of time to use as long service leave, in accordance with this clause and Schedule 16 of this Agreement;
- (b) the employee may apply to combine the cash out of some long service leave with the taking of some long service leave. In this case, the time taken in long service leave may be deducted from the minimum retained five (5) weeks leave, as prescribed in paragraph (a) above.

For example, thirteen (13) weeks accrued long service leave may be taken as eight (8) weeks cashed out, three (3) weeks in leave actually taken and two (2) weeks long service leave retained for another time.
- (c) the “cashing out” of long service leave may only occur once in any five (5) year period;
- (d) the notice period required to cash out some long service leave only is a minimum of four (4) weeks (or less by mutual agreement with the employer); and
- (e) the employee seeks independent financial advice prior to making application to “cash out” their long service leave.

The existing arrangements for making application for long service leave would continue in the present form.

8.5 Personal/Carer’s Leave

8.5.1 Personal/Carer's Leave Accrual

- (a) Full-time employees will accrue personal/carers leave at the rate of ten (10) days per year.
- (b) Personal/Carer's leave is accrued at the rate one (1) day for every 5.2 weeks of service and will accumulate from year to year.
- (c) Part-time or term-time employees accrue personal/carers leave on a pro rata basis.

8.5.2 Portability of Personal/Carer Leave

There will be portability of personal/carers leave among all Queensland Catholic school employers, conditional upon the following:

- (a) all personal/carers leave accruing after 12 January 2004 will be portable; and
- (b) there must be continuity of service between the Queensland Catholic school employers.

8.5.3 Taking Personal/Carer's Leave

- (a) An employee may take paid personal/carers leave if the leave is taken:
 - (i) because the employee is not fit for work because of a personal illness, or personal injury, affecting the employee; or
 - (ii) to provide care or support to a member of the employee's immediate family, or a member of the employee's household, who requires care or support because of:
 - (A) a personal illness, or personal injury, affecting the member; or
 - (B) an unexpected emergency affecting the member; or
 - (iii) for their emotional recovery following a traumatic event.
- (b) If the employee has exhausted his or her entitlement under subclause 4(a), the employee may take up to an additional two (2) days unpaid personal/carers leave each time the employee needs to care for and support members of the employee's immediate family or household who requires care and support for a reason specified in paragraph 4(a)(ii).
- (c) The employee may take additional unpaid carers leave if the employer agrees.
- (d) An employee cannot take personal/carers leave if another person has taken leave to care for the same person unless there are special circumstances requiring more than one (1) person to care for the person.
- (e) Personal/carers leave may be taken for part of a day.
- (f) In this clause:
 - (i) "employee" does not include a casual employee.
 - (ii) "personal/carers leave" includes sick personal/carers leave accrued before the commencement of this clause.

8.5.4 Casual Employees

- (a) A casual employee is entitled to unpaid personal/carer's leave where a reason specified in subclause 3(a) applies.
- (b) The employer must not fail to re-engage a casual employee only because the employee has taken unpaid personal-carer's leave under this clause.
- (c) However, the rights of an employer not to re-engage a casual employee are not otherwise affected.

8.5.5 Provision of evidence to the employer

- (a) Subject to paragraph (b), where an employee accesses personal/carer's leave as a result of their own personal illness or injury (subclause 3(a)(i)), and the employee's absence is for more than two (2) days, the employee is required to give the employer a doctor's certificate or other reasonably acceptable evidence about the nature and approximate duration of the illness.
- (b) An employer may give an employee written notice that for future absences of less than 3 days, the employee is required to give evidence about the nature of the employee's illness or injury as referred to in paragraph (a) provided that:
 - (i) the employer forms a reasonable concern in relation to the absences of an employee;
 - (ii) such reasonable concern relates to:
 - (A) absences on working days before or following a public holiday, approved leave, an RDO or school vacation period; or
 - (B) absences on particular days or events; or
 - (C) absences with a frequency that exceeds reasonable workplace norms.
 - (iii) the employer must first:
 - (A) give the employee an opportunity to discuss and respond to the reasonable concern; and
 - (B) consider the employee's response; and
 - (iv) the written notice includes:
 - (A) any specific directions in relation to:
 - (1) how and who the employee is to notify in relation to absences; and/or
 - (2) whether there will be a follow up meeting after absences to consider whether there is any reasonable support that the employer can provide the employee;
 - (B) a date by which the notice expires that must be within 12 months of the date of the notice; and
 - (C) information that a further written notice may be issued if subparagraphs (i) to (iii) are satisfied in the future.
- (c) To avoid doubt, paragraph (b) does not restrict the employer from taking other management action at any time relating to an employee's illness, injury or absence.

- (d) Where an employee accesses personal/carer's leave for a reason specified in subclause 3(a)(ii) (to provide care and support) or (iii) (emotional recovery), then the employee must, if required by the employer, produce a doctor's certificate (where appropriate) or a statutory declaration evidencing that the leave is taken for the specified reason.
- (e) An employee must, if practicable, give the employer:
 - (i) notice of the intention to take personal/carer's leave before taking the leave; and
 - (ii) if providing care or support, the name of the person requiring care and the person's relationship to the employee; and
 - (iii) the reason for taking the leave; and
 - (iv) the period that the employee estimates he or she will be absent; and
 - (v) if the reason for taking the leave is because an unexpected emergency has arisen, the nature of the emergency.
- (f) If it is not practicable for the employee to notify the employer of the intention to take personal/carer's leave before taking the leave, the employee must notify the employer at the first reasonable opportunity.

8.6 Health Check Leave

The importance of employees maintaining healthy lifestyles and seeking regular health check-ups is recognised.

- 8.6.1 Employees with forty (40) or more days of accumulated personal/carer's leave will be entitled to use one (1) day per annum of the accumulated personal/carer's leave to obtain medical advice and/or treatment of a preventative nature.
- 8.6.2 The employee shall, where practicable, give the employer two (2) weeks' notice prior to taking health check leave.

8.7 Access to Leave – Terminally Ill Member of Household

- 8.7.1 Employees are entitled to access paid leave to care for or support a household member who is terminally ill. This leave will be deducted from the employee's personal/carer's leave accrual.
- 8.7.2 A further three (3) months of unpaid leave can be accessed by the employee to continue such care and support if necessary.
- 8.7.3 An employer may request a doctor's certificate indicating the terminal nature of the illness.

8.8 Unpaid Parental Leave

- 8.8.1 Unpaid parental leave provisions are provided for in the NES (Chapter 2, Part 2-2, Division 5: sections 67 to 85 of the Fair Work Act 2009).
- 8.8.2 For information purposes, a summary of the NES provisions are provided on the Fair Work Ombudsman website.
- 8.8.3 The normal guidelines and application procedures of the employer will be used to access unpaid parental leave.
- 8.8.4 Interruption of Leave by Return to Work
 - (a) An employee and employer may agree that the employee break the period of parental leave by returning to work for the employer, whether on a full-time, part-time or casual basis.
 - (b) The period of parental leave cannot be extended by the return to work beyond the total period allowed under the NES.

8.9 Paid Parental Leave

8.9.1 Eligible Employees

Eligible employees are entitled to a paid component of parental leave. An employee is eligible if they:

- (a) have at least one (1) year's continuous service with the employer;
- (b) comply with either subclause 3 (a), (b), (c) or (d); and
- (c) have complied with relevant notice and evidence requirements for taking parental leave unless the non-compliance was caused by:
 - (i) the child being born, or the pregnancy otherwise terminating, before the expected date of birth; or
 - (ii) the child being placed for adoption before the expected day of placement; or
 - (iii) another reason that was reasonable in the circumstances and the employee has given the employer:
 - (A) notice as soon as reasonably practicable; and
 - (B) evidence supporting the reason for non-compliance that would satisfy a reasonable person in the circumstances.

8.9.2 In this clause:

- (a) "child" for the purposes of subclause 3 (adoption) means a child under the age of five (5) years at the date of placement, but does not include a child who:
 - (i) has lived continuously with the employee for a period of at least six (6) months; or
 - (ii) is the child or stepchild of the employee or employee's spouse.
- (b) "full pay" means the normal average weekly earnings for the six (6) weeks immediately preceding the date upon which the employee commenced parental leave.
- (c) "PPL" means paid parental leave;
- (d) "primary carer" means the person who assumes the Principal role of providing care and attention to a child; and
- (e) "still born child" has the same meaning as outlined in section 77A\(2\) of the Act.

8.9.3 PPL – Continuing Employees

Eligible continuing employees are entitled to PPL as follows:

- (a) a female employee who is giving birth to a child and remains the primary carer of the child is entitled to up to 14 (fourteen) weeks PPL on full pay;
- (b) an employee who has adopted a child and remains the primary carer of the child is entitled to up to 14 (fourteen) weeks PPL on full pay from the date of placement;
- (c) a female employee who gave birth to a still born child is entitled to up to 14 (fourteen) weeks PPL on full pay from:
 - (i) the date of the still birth if a period of PPL had not already commenced prior to that date; or
 - (ii) the date the period of PPL commenced if that date is prior to the still birth; and

- (d) an employee who is the:
 - (i) spouse of a mother who has given birth to their child; and
 - (ii) primary carer of the child for at least five (5) consecutive working days within the first fourteen (14) weeks immediately following the birth of the child,is entitled to PPL on full pay for that period.

8.9.4 Where both spouses:

- (a) are employed by employers covered by either this Agreement or the Catholic Employers Single Enterprise Collective Agreement – Diocesan Schools of Queensland 2023 - 2026 (or any enterprise agreement that replaces, or is replaced by that agreement); and
- (b) would otherwise comply with subclauses 3 (a) and (d), the entitlement for PPL is up to 14 (fourteen) weeks between them.

For example, an employee of a Diocesan employer is pregnant and has applied for parental leave to commence 6 weeks before the date of birth. That employee then returns to work 6 weeks after giving birth. At this time, that employee's spouse, who is employed by a Religious Institute School employer, becomes the primary carer of the child for the next 8 weeks (ie. up to the end of the first 14 weeks immediately following the birth). The employee who gave birth receives 12 weeks PPL (pursuant to this Agreement), while the spouse would be entitled to two (2) weeks PPL (ie. a maximum of 14 weeks PPL between them).

For the avoidance of doubt, it is recorded that PPL is exclusive of Paid Spousal Leave – Non-Primary Carer. Consequently, the spouse is entitled to: two weeks spousal leave at the time of the birth (clause 8.9.11); and two (2) weeks PPL after the employee who gave birth returns to work.

8.9.5 PPL is:

- (a) taken at the commencement of parental leave as one unbroken period and cannot be broken into smaller periods of leave (subject to paragraph (e) for term-time employees);
- (b) counted as service for all purposes with superannuation and all other employee entitlements continuing to accrue during the leave;
- (c) inclusive of public holidays which may fall during the period of leave;
- (d) for teachers, exclusive of any paid school vacation period which may fall during the period of leave;
- (e) for term-time employees:
 - (i) exclusive of any unpaid school vacation period that may fall during the period of leave; and
 - (ii) if subject to clause S11.11 of Schedule 11 (Annualisation of Salary – Term Time Employees), paid on the basis that the employee will receive the equivalent of 14 weeks full pay at the weekly wage rate that would apply if an annualization of salary arrangement was not implemented;
- (f) accessed prior to any annual leave or long service leave that the employee may wish to apply for;
- (g) not to be substituted by paid personal/carer's leave; and
- (h) not diminished by any federal government's legislative paid parental leave scheme that is implemented consistent with that legislation.

8.9.6 Subsequent Eligibility for PPL (eg. pregnancy) while on leave

- (a) An employee who:
 - (i) is already on parental leave; and
 - (ii) subsequently becomes eligible to receive PPL in accordance with 8.9.1 (Eligible Employees),will be entitled to subsequent period(s) of PPL on full pay without any requirement to first return to work.
- (b) An employee on extended leave without pay (other than parental leave) is not entitled to PPL.
- (c) For the purposes of paragraph (a), “full pay” means the normal average weekly earnings for the 6 weeks immediately preceding the date the employee commenced their initial period of parental leave.

8.9.7 PPL - Half Pay

- (a) Where an employee is entitled to PPL and elects to access this entitlement at half pay, the following applies:
 - (i) the employee will be entitled to double the period of leave which would otherwise be applicable;
 - (ii) the period of PPL at half pay will be paid for at half the rate which would have been applicable if the employee were not accessing PPL at half pay;
 - (iii) where an employee accesses PPL at half pay, the employee’s current ordinary hours will be deemed to be halved and all entitlements will accrue on that pro rata basis;
 - (iv) where an employee accesses PPL at half pay and where a salary packaging agreement exists, this agreement will be honoured or renegotiated - any associated costs will be borne by the employee consistent with current salary packaging arrangements;
 - (v) a period of PPL at half pay will be inclusive of public holidays and where a public holiday falls:
 - (A) during a period of PPL at half pay; and
 - (B) on a day on which the subject employee would otherwise work,
 - (vi) the employee will be paid for the public holiday at half the rate which would have been applicable if the employee were not accessing PPL at half pay.

8.9.8 PPL – Half Pay - Teachers

The following provisions will apply to teachers who access PPL at half pay:

- (a) a period of PPL at half pay will be exclusive of school vacations;
- (b) school vacations (except for the Christmas vacation) which are within a period of PPL at half pay will be paid for at half the rate which would have been applicable if the employee were not accessing PPL at half pay;
- (c) school vacations (except for the Christmas vacation) which are contiguous with a period of PPL at half pay will be paid for at the rate which would have been applicable if the employee were not accessing PPL at half pay;

(d) Christmas Vacation

Where a teacher accesses a period of PPL at half pay which is wholly within one calendar year (as defined in sub-paragraph (e) below), that employee will be paid a sum for the Christmas vacation calculated in accordance with the following formula:

$$P = \frac{L}{W} \times S - A$$

Where:

P - is the total amount paid to the employee for the Christmas vacation;

L - is the number of weeks actually worked plus the number of weeks of PPL;

W - is the number of weeks the teacher would have worked if they had not accessed PPL;

S - is the total amount which would have been paid for the calendar year if the employee were not accessing PPL at half pay; and

A - is the total amount paid to the teacher in that calendar year prior to the Christmas vacation.

(e) for the purposes of this clause, "calendar year" will be defined in one (1) of two (2) ways, depending on the method of employing teachers used by a particular employer:

(i) Where an employer employs teachers from 1 January to 31 December, then that is the definition of calendar year to be used in relation to that employer for the purposes of sub-paragraphs (d) and (f); and

(ii) Where an employer employs teachers from the beginning of term one to the day before the beginning of Term One in the following year, then that is the definition of calendar year to be used in relation to that employer for the purposes of sub-paragraphs (d) and (f); and

(f) where a teacher accesses a period of PPL at half pay and that period extends across two (2) calendar years (as defined in paragraph (e)), that employee will be paid in accordance with this paragraph:

(i) For the Christmas vacation at the end of each calendar year the employee will be paid a sum calculated in accordance with the formula prescribed in paragraph (d).

(ii) All other school vacations (including, where applicable, the Christmas vacation at the beginning of a calendar year) which are within a period of PPL at half pay will be paid for at half the rate which would have been applicable if the employee was not accessing paid parental leave at half pay.

8.9.9 PPL – Fixed-Term Employees

(a) Fixed-term employees are eligible for PPL on the same basis as continuing employees.

(b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a) above, where the employee's contract comes to an end before the expiration of the period of PPL, the employee will be entitled to receive payment only up until the conclusion of the fixed-term contract.

(c) Where a fixed-term employee secures a further contract, and that further contract commences within three (3) months of the expiry of the preceding contract, any period of PPL that would have been forfeited as a result of the expiry of the preceding contract can be accessed from the date of commencement of the new contract of employment.

8.9.10 Payment of PPL

- (a) The employee may request, and the employer may agree, that the payment for PPL be made in advance at the time of commencing such leave. Where agreement is not reached, the employee will be paid in accordance with the normal fortnightly pay cycle.
- (b) Where an employee has received payment in advance for the period of PPL at the time of commencing leave, and the pregnancy subsequently results in a miscarriage or stillbirth, the employee will be entitled to retain such payment, subject to the employee remaining on leave for a minimum of fourteen (14) weeks.
- (c) Where an employee is paid in accordance with the normal fortnightly pay cycle, and the pregnancy subsequently results in a miscarriage or a still birth, the employee will be entitled to remain on PPL for the fourteen (14) week period.

8.9.11 Paid Spousal Leave – Non-Primary Carer

- (a) An employee is entitled to ten (10) days (pro-rata for part-time employees) paid leave in connection with the birth or adoption of child/children for whom the employee will have responsibility or a stillborn child for whom the employee would have had responsibility as follows:
 - (i) this leave is a separate entitlement to personal/carer's leave and will not be deducted from the employee's accrued personal/carer's leave.

For example, a full-time employee is entitled to ten (10) days paid leave from the school workplace (that is, a fortnight's full-time wage payment) in connection with the birth or adoption of their child.
 - (ii) subject to paragraphs (iii) to (vi) below, the employee can nominate when they will take this leave;
 - (iii) subject to subparagraph (iv), the period of leave nominated by the employee will be taken within one month after:
 - (A) the birth or adoption of the child;
 - (B) the child being first discharged from hospital following a period of hospitalisation immediately following birth; or
 - (C) the stillbirth of the child.
 - (iv) in cases of demonstrated need (for example, travel to a birthing facility or caring for other children where complete bed rest for pregnant partner is prescribed) this leave may be accessed prior to confinement or adoption;
 - (v) the employee must comply with the notice requirements identified in paragraph (b) below;
 - (vi) the employee must, if requested, participate in discussions with the employer regarding reasonable operational requirements.
 - (vii) this period of leave is inclusive of public holidays which may fall during the leave;
 - (viii) for teachers, this period of leave will be exclusive of any paid school vacation which may fall during the leave;
 - (ix) an employee will not be required to provide a medical certificate to support such leave;

- (b) To be entitled to the leave (paid spousal leave – non-primary carer) provided at paragraph (a) above, an employee must comply with the following requirements of:
 - (i) subclause 1(a) – 1 year’s continuous service with the employer; and
 - (ii) subclause 1(c) - notice and evidence requirements.
- (c) Employees who are the primary care givers and have accessed PPL in accordance with subclause 3(b) or (d) within one month of the birth or adoption are eligible for paid spousal leave pursuant to this clause only for the period within that first month that was not PPL; and

For example, a spouse accessed PPL for the first 3 weeks following the birth of a child. That spouse would be entitled to 1 week of paid spousal leave being the remainder of the period not covered by PPL within the month following the birth when paid spousal leave must be taken.

- (d) For part-time employees:
 - (i) the provisions of paragraph (a) above apply, except where altered by paragraphs (ii) to (iii) below.
 - (ii) paid spousal leave is on a pro rata basis and the quantum of paid hours of spousal leave will be the same as the number of hours which the employee would normally have received in the two week period of leave had the employee attended for work; and
 - (iii) it is recognised that the period of absence will not often fall neatly in complete weeks of the school timetable,

For example, a part-time employee working fifteen (15) hours per week (Monday five (5) hours, Tuesday six (6) hours, Wednesday four (4) hours in Week 1; and Wednesday seven (7) hours, Thursday four (4) hours and Friday four (4) hours in Week 2) may choose to commence the ten (10) days paid spousal (paternity) leave on the Thursday of Week 2 of the timetable. They would be paid as follows for the period of the ten (10) day absence: Thursday four (4) hours + Friday four (4) hours (Week 2) + Monday five (5) hours + Tuesday six (6) hours + Wednesday four (4) hours (Week 1) + Wednesday seven (7) hours (Week 1) = thirty (30) hours. The total amount of paid leave for the ten (10) day period of spousal (paternity) leave remains the normal fortnightly part-time wage payment.

- (e) In addition to the provision at subclause 11 (a) and (d), an employee will be entitled to five (5) days spousal leave in connection with the birth or adoption of child/children for whom the employee will have responsibility subject to the following as follows:
 - (i) the leave will be used to enable the employee to attend to medical/agency appointments or to care for ill members of the immediate family;
 - (ii) an employer may request either confirmation of medical/agency appointments, or a doctor’s certificate indicating the nature of the illness, as the case may be; and
 - (iii) the leave will be deducted from the employee’s accrued personal/carer’s leave.

8.10 Compassionate Leave

8.10.1 An employee, other than a casual employee, is entitled to:

- (a) at least three (3) days paid compassionate leave for each permissible occasion when a member of the person's immediate family or household:
 - (i) contracts or develops a personal illness that poses a serious threat to his or her life, for the purposes of spending time with that member; or
 - (ii) sustains a personal injury that poses a serious threat to his or her life, for the purposes of spending time with that member; or
 - (iii) dies.
- (b) If the employee reasonably requires extra time to travel to and from the funeral or other ceremony for the death, an amount of unpaid compassionate leave equal to the time reasonably required for the travel.
- (c) Compassionate leave may be taken as a single three (3) day period, three (3) separate one day periods, or as otherwise agreed with the employer.

- (e) An employee may take additional unpaid compassionate leave if the employer agrees.

8.10.2 Casual Employees

- (a) A casual employee is entitled to at least three (3) days unpaid compassionate leave on the same basis, and subject to the same conditions, as provided in subclause 1(a) above.
- (b) The employer must not fail to re-engage a casual employee only because the casual employee has taken compassionate leave under this clause.
- (c) However, the rights of an employer not to re-engage a casual employee are not otherwise affected.

8.10.3 Notice and Evidence

- (a) An employee must give his or her employer notice of the taking of compassionate leave as soon as practicable (which may be at a time after the leave has started) and must advise the employer of the period, or expected period, of the leave.
- (b) In the event of a death, the employee must give the employer a copy of the funeral notice or other evidence of the death the employer reasonably requires.
- (c) In circumstances other than a death, an employee who has given their employer notice of taking compassionate leave must, if required by the employer, provide the employer with evidence which would satisfy a reasonable person that the leave is taken for the reason specified.

8.11 Emergency and Natural Disaster Leave

8.11.1 The parties to this Agreement recognise the importance of keeping schools open wherever possible during times of natural disasters and, should schools need to be closed for a time, to reopen them as soon as possible.

8.11.2 Employees will assist with keeping schools open to support students, families and the community and to provide continuity of teaching/learning as far as is feasible and safe to do so. They will attend work unless prevented by circumstances described in subclause 3 or are otherwise on approved leave. Subject to subclause 3 employees may be asked to assist with preparing for a reopening of a damaged school.

- 8.11.3 An employee who is prevented from attending the employee's normal place of employment because of floods, cyclonic disturbances, severe storms, or bush fires (or any other comparable natural disaster or emergency) will be granted a maximum of five (5) days per calendar year non-cumulative paid leave in the following circumstances:
- (a) when they have experienced extreme loss or trauma; or
 - (b) where the employee must, of necessity, remain at home to safeguard the employee's family or property; or
 - (c) where the employee must remain at home to have temporary repairs effected, restore or replace essential belongings, complete necessary clean-up for safety or to enable occupation of residence etcetera; or
 - (d) where an employee must remain at home because transport services and facilities are disrupted or discontinued due to weather or flood conditions; or
 - (e) where the employee is away from their usual residence and is unavoidably delayed in returning to their place of employment due to identified and specific disruptions to transport services and facilities; or
 - (f) where the employee is required to return home before the employee's usual ceasing time to ensure personal safety, the protection of the employee's family and property or because the availability of transport services and facilities may be disrupted or discontinued due to weather or flood conditions.
- 8.11.4 Access to the leave in subclause 3 will be coordinated by the employer and/or Principal.
- 8.11.5 The employer and/or Principal will make every effort to clarify contact and communication procedures to be used at times of emergencies.
- 8.11.6 The employer may consider additional paid leave in exceptional circumstances or where an employee is affected by more than one (1) disaster or emergency in any year.
- 8.11.7 Leave for attendance at emergencies
- (a) An employee who is a member of the State Emergency Service, voluntary member of a local firefighting unit, members of a Rural Fire Brigade, auxiliary of a fire brigade, honorary ambulance officer or St John ambulance volunteer will be granted paid leave when called out for emergencies, to fight local fires or where an emergency situation or state of disaster has been declared under the Public Safety Preservation Act 1986 (Queensland) or the Disaster Management Act 2003 (Queensland).
 - (b) Paid leave is not available for training purposes, however unpaid leave may be granted at the employer's discretion.

8.12 Defence Force Reserve Leave

8.12.1 Teachers

- (a) Teachers who are members of the Defence Force Reserve may access leave with pay to attend periods of required training offered in normal working hours (such as but not limited to camps, field exercises or required courses) up to a maximum of ten (10) calendar days during term time each Australian Tax Office (ATO) financial year.

In addition, a teacher may access an additional twenty-two (22) calendar days paid leave during term time each ATO financial year, after the initial qualifying period has been paid by the employer, provided that the employer receives a payment for the employee absence under the Employer Support Payment Scheme (Defence Reserves Support) or howsoever named.

- (b) In addition to the above, a further fourteen (14) calendar days leave with pay may be accessed during term time in a teacher's first year of reserve service, where attendance at recruitment or initial training is required.

The teacher is not required to forward to the employer any monies or allowances paid by the defence force for their attendance at camps, courses or other training whilst on periods of leave with pay during term time.

The teacher will not be disadvantaged in terms of accrued entitlements during absence on leave with pay for this purpose.

- (c) Wherever possible, the teacher should schedule their attendance at Defence Force Reserve activities during school vacation periods.
- (d) Any further teacher absence due to defence force reserve leave activities in term time will be approved as leave without pay.

8.12.2 School Officers and Service Staff

- (a) School officers and service staff who are members of the Defence Force Reserve may access leave with pay to attend periods of required training offered in normal working hours (such as but not limited to camps, field exercises or required courses) up to a maximum of ten (10) calendar days each ATO financial year.

S2.2 Operation

S2.2.1 All appointments to the positions of the leadership structure are made under the provisions of this Schedule.

S2.2.2 Purposes

The parties to this Schedule recognise that Catholic schools are conducted for the purposes related to the Mission of the Catholic Church in addition to those purposes common to all schools in Queensland.

S2.2.3 It is therefore accepted that the leadership and management structures appropriate to Catholic schools reflect both the nature and ethos or the values that derive from those purposes and take account of different educational needs without prejudice to principles of public accountability and equity.

S2.2.4 This Schedule provides Positions of Leadership in Catholic schools that:

- (a) assure quality learning for students;
- (b) provide a satisfactory career path for teachers;
- (c) incorporate a Christian leadership model that is committed to the principle of collegiality and subsidiarity;
- (d) value responsibility for people and for processes;
- (e) support school staff pastorally;
- (f) maintain quality management and accountability;
- (g) encourage leadership and innovation;
- (h) contribute positively to the particular ethos of the school;
- (i) are determined in a fair manner; and

S2.3 How Allowances are paid

S2.3.1 Where this Schedule provides for the payment of an allowance for a Position of Leadership (see clauses S2.10.7, S2.16.3 and S2.16.4), the teacher concerned receives the allowance added to the teacher's substantive rate of pay up to and including the rate of Proficient 8. To avoid any doubt, this includes teachers on Proficient 8.

S2.3.2 A teacher whose substantive rate of pay is Experienced Proficient Teacher (see clause 4.15 of this Agreement), and who is appointed to a Position of Leadership, receives the Proficient 8 rate plus the allowance.

S2.4 Definitions

Senior Leadership positions howsoever designated include all appointments of teachers within the school who provide support to the Principal in the senior leadership and management of the school and include:

- (b) Provided that Middle Leadership positions do not include those positions which would fill a minor co-ordinating role and which attract an allowance payment of less than one unit as defined.

S2.4.3 The difference between leadership and co-ordination is intrinsic to the accurate classification of Middle Leadership positions. Table 4 of this Schedule describes these in terms of application to various roles.

- (a) “Coordination” describes the administrative tasks of organising people and/or things in order to make them work together effectively.
- (b) “Leadership” describes a wide range of responsibilities and skills, particularly the ability to guide, direct or influence people in achieving collective objectives. Leadership includes self-development; developing, engaging and inspiring others; thinking clearly; and delivering outcomes.

S2.16.2 Enrolment levels for the purpose of allocation of Middle Leadership positions within the above bands will be those taken from the Commonwealth School Census for the year prior to the operating year.

Tier 1 and Teachers up to Proficient 4 (Tier 2 to 5)- Value of Allowance and Release Time

- S2.16.3 Subclause 3 applies to teachers who are appointed to:
- (a) Tier 1 Middle Leadership positions; or
 - (b) Tiers 2, 3, 4 or 5 Middle Leadership positions and have a substantive rate up to and including Proficient 4.
- S2.16.4 The following applies to teachers prescribed by subclause 3:
- (a) where an allowance and release time is allocated in terms of units and where the value of one (1) unit consists of the following:
 - (i) the monetary value prescribed in Schedule 1 – S1.3 (Positions of Leadership) of this Agreement; and
 - (ii) one (1) hour release time per week;
 - (b) there are five (5) tier designations of Middle Leadership (with Tier 1 being further sub-divided) with unit values as follows:
 - (i) Tier 1.1 is equivalent to two (2) units (the monetary allowance and a minimum of two (2) hours release time per week);
 - (ii) Tier 1.2 is equivalent to three (3) units (the monetary allowance and a minimum of three (3) hours release time per week);
 - (iii) Tier 2 is equivalent to four (4) units (the monetary allowance and a minimum of four (4) hours release time per week);
 - (iv) Tier 3 is equivalent to six (6) units (the monetary allowance and a minimum of six (6) hours release time per week);
 - (v) Tier 4 is equivalent to eight (8) units (the monetary allowance and a minimum of eight and a half (8.5) hours release time per week);
 - (vi) Tier 5 is equivalent to ten (10) units (the monetary allowance and a minimum of 11.94 hours release time per week).
 - (c) the monetary allowance for each Tier listed in paragraph (b) is outlined in Schedule 1 – S1.3 (Positions of Leadership) of this Agreement;

Complexity Loading

- (d) A ‘Complexity Loading’ of one unit (the monetary allowance and one (1) hour) may be added to Middle Leader positions, where considered appropriate, without disturbing the appropriately designated classification tier as determined by the Principal on advice from the School Consultative Committee;
- (e) Certain Tier 2, 3 and 4 Middle Leader positions may be determined eligible for the ‘Complexity Loading’ where the release time may be considered inadequate for the requirements of the position, where the responsibilities of the position is at the upper end of the classification criteria or some other factor is present warranting additional consideration in annual allowance and release time applicable.
- (f) The ‘Complexity Loading’ applies as follows:
 - (i) Tier 2 attracts four (4) units and when a ‘Complexity Loading’ of one (1) unit is applied, such position attracts five (5) units in total (the monetary allowance and five (5) hours of weekly release time);

- (ii) Tier 3 attracts six (6) units and when a 'Complexity Loading' of one (1) unit is applied, such position attracts seven (7) units in total (the monetary allowance and seven (7) hours of weekly release time).
- (iii) Tier 4 attracts eight (8) units and when a 'Complexity Loading' of one (1) unit is applied, such position attracts nine (9) units in total (the monetary allowance and 10.23 hours of weekly release time).

Note: The application of the 'Complexity Loading' differs slightly for Tier 4 positions, as the annual allowance should not exceed that applicable to a designated Tier 5 Middle Leader position - Instead, the additional unit of annual allowance is converted to time and added to the new time allowance of nine (9) hours.

- (g) the monetary allowance for each Tier with complexity loading listed in paragraph (f) is outlined in Schedule 1.3 of this Agreement.

Teachers on Proficient 5 and above (Tier 2 – 5)

S2.16.5 Subclause 6 applies to teachers who:

- (a) have a substantive rate of pay from Proficient 5 and above; and
- (b) are appointed to Middle Leadership positions from Tier 2 up to and including Tier 5.

S2.16.6 A teacher prescribed by subclause 5 will receive:

- (a) the salary for the relevant Tier of the Position of Middle Leadership as prescribed in Schedule 1 - S1.3; and
- (b) the same weekly release time that applies to the relevant Tier of the Position of Middle Leadership as prescribed in subclause 4.

S2.16.7 Additional Middle Leadership release time for allocation over the school year

- (a) In addition to the minimum release time designated for each Middle Leader Tier, as described in subclause 4, extra hours of Middle Leadership release are also available for allocation over a school year. Such additional release time will be allocated to various Middle Leadership positions on either a weekly basis or at particular pressure points identified within the school year.
- (b) This additional release time is intended to enable the different needs of various Middle Leadership positions to be best supported. (For example, Middle Leadership Pastoral positions may require additional release time to be allocated on a weekly basis to enable more contact with students during school hours; while Middle Leadership Curriculum positions may require additional release time to be allocated ahead of a new work program being due).
- (c) Ten per cent (10%) of the total Middle Leadership resources pool available to schools have been reserved for this purpose, prior to conversion to units.
- (d) The precise number of additional release hours that may be allocated to Middle Leadership positions over the school year for each school enrolment size, are detailed at Table 3 above.
- (e) Up to fifty percent (50%) of this flexible time may be converted into additional units for a school's Middle Leadership structure, should both the School Consultative Committee and the Principal agree that this is desirable.
- (f) The School Consultative Committee will consider, and make recommendation to the Principal on the appropriate distribution of these additional hours of release to the various Middle Leadership positions, as part of their deliberations outlined in paragraph (g) and clause S2.17 and S2.18 of this Schedule.

- (g) In determining if additional release time for a Middle Leadership position from the quantum available is necessary, the following factors may be considered:
- (i) the number of teachers needing to be led or co-ordinated;
 - (ii) the number of subjects involved in any area of academic responsibility or number of Year levels under the Pastoral Leader;
 - (iii) the number of students involved and their particular academic or pastoral needs;
 - (iv) the structure of the school e.g. multiple campuses or 11-12, 8-12 or arrangements spanning primary and secondary, pastoral care structure;
 - (v) school curriculum or pastoral initiatives;
 - (vi) the overall level of resourcing of the area; and
 - (vii) other relevant factors.
- (h) In suggesting additional release time, the SCC will also suggest whether this should be in the form of an additional allocation for each week of the school year or whether it should take the form of a bank of time to be accessed upon request by the Middle Leader and with the consent of the Principal at times of particular need e.g. at beginning or end of a semester, at times when essential planning is required, etc.

S2.17 School Consultative Committee – Secondary

- S2.17.1 The Principal determines the appropriate middle leadership structure and release time for a secondary school. In determining this structure a consultative process involving the formation of a School Consultative Committee (SCC) will be followed.
- S2.17.2 Membership of the School Consultative Committee includes:
- (a) Two (2) persons nominated by the employer/Principal; and
 - (b) One (1) union member elected by the school chapter of the IEUA;
 - (c) One (1) staff member elected by the teaching staff other than members of Senior Leadership.
- S2.17.3 It would be appropriate for the School Consultative Committee to determine a number of options for the middle leadership structure which take account of the current organisation and future needs of the school. Consultation by the whole committee with the entire teaching staff is necessary, prior to any decisions being made.
- S2.17.4 Appropriate leadership and management provision will be made for pastoral, academic and other program areas, designed to meet emerging needs of the contemporary secondary school. The employer in consultation with the School Consultative Committee will give consideration to the particular requirements of the school by first allocating up to twenty per cent (20%) of available points to the pastoral area. Academic and other needs including pastoral needs will be assessed in the context of the remaining available points.
- S2.17.5 A consultative process involving participation of the School Consultative Committee will be the vehicle by which the school's middle leadership structure will be reviewed each 4 years or by local agreement. The detail and the form of such a review are to be negotiated between the parties.

S2.18 Middle Leadership Structure

S2.18.1 Consultation

- (a) The Principal in a secondary school will inform the School Consultative Committee (SCC) on key considerations underpinning the development of a Middle Leadership structure, including:
- (i) educational vision;
 - (ii) strategic directions;
 - (iii) particular programs, emphases and needs of the school; and
 - (iv) any government initiatives that may impact in the foreseeable future.

This fundamental first step ensures the appropriate opportunity for a high-level, engaged conversation between the Principal as educational leader and the School Consultative Committee tasked with the development of the recommendations.

- (b) The School Consultative Committee and Principal will consult with the whole teaching staff to further inform their deliberations.
- (c) The SCC will then make recommendations to the Principal about the Middle Leadership structure for the school based on minimum available units, and any additional release time within the available flexible hours, appropriate for the structure they have suggested.
- (d) The Principal, following consultation with the SCC, will determine the Middle Leadership structure and any additional release allocations for each Middle Leader.
- (e) The final Middle Leadership structure will be widely published to teaching staff to enable all an opportunity to apply, where appropriate. Full details will include a list of all Middle Leadership positions, existing appointments/vacancies, unit allocation, time release, financial allowance and flexible hours allocation.

An example of a table that may be used for this purpose is detailed below:

Middle Leadership Position	Unit allocation	Weekly time release	Annual financial allowance	Flexible hours allocation	Name of existing appointee or 'position vacant'

S2.18.2 Positions of Middle Leadership in Secondary Schools

- (a) The responsibilities of each tier and category of middle leadership position in secondary schools are detailed in Table 4.
- This table further details criteria to guide the appropriate tier designation of each middle leadership position. There are five (5) tiers of Middle Leader position, according to the level of responsibility, complexity and/or autonomy entailed in the particular role.
- (b) Responsibilities of Middle Leaders in secondary schools vary according to: type of position held; school size; school location; school complexity; school culture and community; school pedagogy; nature of student cohort; and the experience of the role holder.
- (c) Middle Leader Tier 1 is intended to be used only where straightforward coordination (rather than leadership) is required of a role. It may be most relevant for a less experienced teacher, a teacher new to Middle Leadership responsibility or in a very small school where a number of areas may be overseen by a designated member of Senior Leadership.

S2.18.3 Middle Leadership Positions

(d) Curriculum Leaders

In establishing the appropriate Curriculum Middle Leadership structure, the School Consultative Committee will take account of the following:

- (i) all academic subject areas within a school will be led, managed and supervised by either a Curriculum Middle Leader or a member of the Senior Leadership Team;
- (ii) there will be five (5) tiers of designation;
- (iii) the School Consultative Committee will give consideration to the following factors, in addition to referring to the criteria at Table 4 above, when making recommendations as to the appropriate tier designation and additional flexible hours for each Middle Leader position:
 - (A) the number of teachers and other staff to be led or coordinated;
 - (B) the number and/or range of subjects involved in any area of academic responsibility;
 - (C) the number of students involved and their particular academic needs;
 - (D) amount of curriculum development required;
 - (E) other associated responsibilities (such as equipment maintenance, resource ordering, industry training and placement);
 - (F) the structure of the school e.g. multiple campuses or 11 – 12, 8-12 or arrangements spanning primary and secondary, pastoral care structure, school curriculum initiatives; and
 - (G) the overall level of resourcing of the area.
- (iv) The leader of a subject area or group of subject areas will receive either a substantive salary or an allowance in addition to the salary payable under Schedule 1– S1.3 of this Agreement and a minimum release time according to the prescribed criteria, as set out in Table 4.

(e) Pastoral Leaders

- (i) The appropriate designations, units, allowance and release time to be allocated, are determined by the Principal following consultation with the School Consultative Committee.
- (ii) The occupants of these positions may be responsible for the welfare of groups of students whether structured by year groups, "houses" in schools or otherwise.
- (iii) In determining the appropriate tier classification to be recommended for Pastoral Leaders, the School Consultative Committee will take account of the following factors:
 - (A) the pastoral care structure of the school e.g. vertical or year level;
 - (B) the number of students and teachers involved in the pastoral care structure;
 - (C) the number of year levels involved if structure is based on year levels;
 - (D) particular pastoral care needs peculiar to the school;

- (E) responsibility for outside school activities each of which is of more than four (4) days' duration e.g. camps; or
 - (F) other relevant factors.
- (f) Program Leaders (or other) positions in response to emerging needs
 - (i) The appropriate designations, allowance and release time to be allocated, are determined by the Principal following consultation with the School Consultative Committee.
 - (ii) In determining the appropriate allowances and release time to be recommended for these positions, the School Consultative Committee will take account of the following factors:
 - (A) impact of school initiatives;
 - (B) the numbers of students and teachers involved in the program / activity;
 - (C) the level of overall resourcing in a particular area e.g. technical support; or
 - (D) other relevant factors.
 - (iii) The occupants of these positions will be responsible for activities which may include, but are not limited to, vocational education and training or sports co-ordination.
 - (iv) The term of appointment to these positions may be varied according to need and be less than that provided in clause S2.13 of this Schedule. Such variation would be by consultation with the incumbent, the School Consultative Committee and the Principal/employer.
- (g) Criteria guidelines
 - (i) Criteria guidelines for the appropriate designation of all middle leadership positions in secondary schools are described in Tables 5, 6 and 7.
- (h) Teachers holding multiple middle leader roles
 - (i) Except in exceptional circumstances, and by mutual agreement, a teacher should not hold more than one middle leadership position due to inherent workload pressures.
 - (ii) Subject to sub-paragraph (iii) of this clause, where a teacher holds multiple middle leader roles, the sum of the annual remuneration and weekly time release for each separate middle leader roles are due to the teacher with payments as follows:
 - (A) If the teacher is eligible to receive a substantive rate of pay in accordance with clauses S2.16.5 and S2.16.6 (Teachers on Proficient 5 and above (Tier 2 – 5))., then the teacher will be paid:
 - (1) the substantive rate for the highest tier Middle Leadership position; plus
 - (2) the applicable allowance for the other role(s) [namely the Tier 1 allowance in accordance with clause S2.16.3(a) or the Tier 2, 3, 4 or 5 allowance as if clauses S2.16.3(b) and S2.16.4 applied (Tier 1 and Teachers up to Proficient 4 (Tier 2 – 5) – Value of Allowance and Release Time)];

- (B) If the teacher is only eligible to receive allowances in accordance with clauses S2.16.3 and S3.16.4 (Tier 1 and Teachers up to Proficient 4 (Tier 2 – 5) – Value of Allowance and Release Time), then the teacher will be paid the applicable allowance for each position.
- (iii) In the special case where the combined annual remuneration of the multiple middle leader roles would exceed the Tier 5 annual remuneration, any monies above this maximum limit would be converted to additional weekly time release.

“For example, as at 1/7/23, a teacher holding a Tier 1.2 ($9,212 + 3 hours) and a Tier 3 ($135,978 + 6 hours) Middle Leadership Position simultaneously would receive a minimum weekly release time of 9 hours and a maximum annual remuneration of $139,845. The balance of the annual financial allowance that would otherwise be due ($5,345) is converted to an additional 1.23 hours of weekly release time (that is, $5,345 divided by $4,345 cost of a unit of release).”

S2.18.4 Release Time Allocations

- (a) A ten per cent (10%) flexibility level is permissible in allocating release time per position.

For example:

Position	Release time (min)	45 min periods	50 min periods	60 min periods	70 min periods
Tier 1.1	120	3	3	2	2
Tier 1.2	180	4	4	3	3
Tier 2	240	5	5	4	4
Tier 3	360	8	7	6	5
Tier 4	510	11	10	8	7
Tier 5	716	16	14	12	10

 - (c) Nurses (Schedule 12);
 - (d) Services Staff (Schedule 13);
 - (e) Boarding Supervision Staff (Schedule 14); and
 - (f) Children Services (Schedule 15).

S9.2 Classification System Objectives

- S9.2.1 The objectives of a classification system should be consistency, transparency, flexibility, and procedural uniformity which is reflective of contemporary positions and character of schools.

Consistency

- S9.2.2 The classification system seeks to be consistent and equitable by:
- (a) grouping together duties of a similar work character within the same classification level;
 - (b) having a credible and defensible method of establishing the work character of each position and the relativities between all work levels; and

- (c) a position evaluation approach based on nine classification factors across all work positions.

Transparency

- S9.2.3 The classification system is supported by clearly defined classification factors that support an open and transparent classification system.

Flexibility

- S9.2.4 The classification system supports flexibility by recognising that some positions in the employer are quite different from others.

Uniformity

- S9.2.5 The classification system supports a unified system by providing a common language to identify and describe the common elements of positions, enabling comparison of positions and position types.

S9.3 Acknowledgement

- S9.3.1 This classification system is based on the Australian Public Service Commission's classification system and related documentation with appropriate changes.

S9.4 Classification System Overview

When is it needed?

- S9.4.1 Making a classification decision on a position is needed when:
 - (a) creating a new position; or
 - (b) evaluating an existing position that has undergone a substantial change in the duties to be performed, complexity or responsibility of the role; or
 - (c) confirming the appropriate classification of a position prior to commencing recruitment.

What is needed?

- S9.4.2 A detailed, factual and up to date understanding of the position being classified must be established and documented to enable a decision on the classification level, including an understanding of:
 - (a) the inherent requirements of the position (ie. what needs to be done, rather than how it is to be done) and any mandatory licences, registrations or qualifications required;
 - (b) the skill and knowledge requirements;
 - (c) the responsibilities and accountabilities; and
 - (d) any employer arrangements that affect the position.
- S9.4.3 Such an understanding would primarily be based on a detailed position description, but may also include, but not limited to, other reference material such as:
 - (a) organisational charts;
 - (b) questionnaires; and
 - (c) records of interview with relevant people who understand and interact with the role (eg. the incumbent, managers)

What is it based on?

S9.4.4 The evaluation of a position using the classification system is based on the following nine (9) classification factors (detailed in clause S9.5.4 and Attachment 1 of this Schedule):

1. Knowledge Application
2. Accountability
3. Scope and Complexity
4. Guidance
5. Decision-making
6. Problem Solving
7. Contact and Relationships
8. Negotiation and Cooperation
9. Management Responsibility/Resource Accountability

What Principles are involved?

S9.4.5 The classification system is underpinned by a set of principles that assist in the understanding of the process.

- (a) Jobs are classified, not people - When making a classification decision, it is vital that the work character of a position is considered and not the capabilities or characteristics of the employee who will perform the position or the performance or capabilities of the employee currently performing the role.
- (b) Classification and remuneration are different - Remuneration does not influence a classification decision. Classification is based on an appropriate work character assessment of the position and not on the remuneration arrangements that may be needed to attract and/or retain appropriately skilled or qualified people.
- (c) Work character and work volume are different - Work volume does not influence the assessment of the character of the work. The appropriate classification of a position should be determined based on the complexity and responsibility of tasks involved, not the number of tasks or how busy the position is. Work volume may influence the number of employees needed to perform the duties.
- (d) Position titles do not dictate classification levels – Local job titles are labels that may be used by an employer to segment the workforce along functional or occupational lines (e.g. Finance Officer). However, this does not mean all Finance Officer titled roles have the same classification. Each role must be considered separately.
- (e) Specialist and Management roles are accommodated - The classification system is able to attribute work character to positions which require a high level of expertise, which may not undertake a management position. The supervision and management of employees is only one component of work character.

Level 1

S9.4.6 An employee appointed to a position which is assessed as being a classification Level 1 will participate in, and the employer will provide, a structured training plan.

Qualifications

- S9.4.7 The classification system does not specify that:
- (a) a qualification (eg. a degree) is required for a position to be classified at a particular classification level; or
 - (b) an employee must have a particular qualification to be appointed to a position at a particular classification level.
- S9.4.8 However, the classification system does inherently require (for some work value descriptors to apply to a position), the level of knowledge and skills equivalent to that typically obtained through formal qualifications (such as a degree), but such knowledge and skills may otherwise be obtained through experience and/or other training.
- S9.4.9 Furthermore, the classification system does not restrict an employer from including a qualification requirement in a position description or when advertising a position for recruitment.

S9.5 Positions Evaluation and Recording

Position Evaluation

- S9.5.1 Position evaluation is the way the work character of new and existing positions is assessed in a structured way using the classification system.
- S9.5.2 Position evaluation is the method of determining the relative work character of a position through assessing the nature, impact and accountabilities of the position.
- S9.5.3 Position evaluation is a two part process:
- (a) evidence is gathered to understand the position (subclause 2 – What is needed?); and
 - (b) the position is assessed and measured against the classification factors.

Evaluating a Position – Classification Factors

- S9.5.4 The classification of a position requires consideration of nine (9) classification factors:
1. Knowledge Application: This factor measures the type and level of knowledge (breadth and depth) that is required and applied to perform the responsibilities of the position. This includes management and environmental knowledge but may also include scientific, professional and/or technical knowledge which has been acquired through both formal learning and work experience.
 2. Accountability: This factor identifies how accountable the position is in the achievement of results. It includes the type and level of actions taken by the position and the level of input to meeting own or team/group outcomes.
 3. Scope and Complexity: This factor covers the type, variety and intricacy of tasks, process or methods in the work performed. It considers the extent and diversity of the activities which must be performed and/or coordinated by the position. It also considers the need to know about activities and requirements across functions within and/or outside the employer.
 4. Guidance: This factor relates to the scope of independent action or autonomy used in the position. It takes into account the level and degree of direction and guidance provided by policy, precedents, and regulations and the requirement to follow clearly defined procedures or being allowed to operate within broad parameters.
 5. Decision Making: This factor relates to the extent to which a position makes decisions on the basis of clear, established guidelines and objectives. This factor also concerns the authority that the position has to make decisions/determinations that affect outcomes (what decisions are the sole responsibility of the position), what advice/recommendations are given to others to support their decision making and the impact the action taken by a position will have, how far reaching the impact is and the duration of the impact (short or long term).

6. Problem Solving: This factor measures the requirements for a position to solve the problems and issues. It includes initiative and original thought. It takes into account requirements for analysis to diagnose a problem and understand complex situations or issues and the judgement necessary to formulate solutions and recommend or decide on the best course of action.
7. Contacts and Relationship: This factor covers the contacts and relationships that are typically required in order to carry out the responsibilities of the position. It measures the requirement for a position to communicate, establish and maintain relationships.
8. Negotiation and Cooperation: This factor measures the requirement for a position to effectively use persuasion, negotiation, explanation, tact and discretion in order to achieve the desired outcome of interactions with stakeholders/others.
9. Management Responsibility/Resource Accountability: This factor measures the responsibility of a position for coordinating, supervising and managing others in work activities as well as the resources (including property, IT, and finances) for which the position is directly accountable and required to manage and control. The emphasis is on the type of responsibility, rather than the precise numbers of those supervised or managed.

S9.5.5 The above classification factors (including relevant work value descriptors for each) are outlined in ATTACHMENT 1.

Record of Evaluation

S9.5.6 The use of the Evaluation Record is encouraged and is outlined in ATTACHMENT 2 (also separately available in Excel spreadsheet format).

S9.5.7 The Evaluation Record is intended to:

- (a) support the consistent application of the classification system; and
- (b) assist employers to evaluate positions and determine the appropriate classification level.

Assigning a Score to a Classification Factor

S9.5.8 Evidence about the position is analysed against the classification factors.

S9.5.9 Each classification factor is assigned a score for the position (based on the appropriate work value descriptor of each classification factor) and the combined score for all nine (9) classification factors indicates the appropriate classification for the position.

S9.5.10 To determine the work value descriptor for each classification factor the assessor should:

- (a) compare descriptors corresponding to lower and higher levels to determine the most appropriate one - the selected descriptor may be a higher or lower level for various classification factors;
- (b) ensure that the position meets the full intent of a descriptor - if the position exceeds a particular descriptor, but fails to meet the full intent of the next higher descriptor, then the lower descriptor should be selected;

- (c) consider the frequency of the performance of the classification factors which may occur at a higher and a lower level - the level of the selected descriptor should not be determined by infrequent occurrences; and
- (d) ensure that the value of a classification factor of the position should not be overstated - the value of the same descriptor should not be attributed to more than one classification factor, eg. staff supervision should only be attributed to the "Management/Resource" factor; it should not be attributed to the "Contacts and Relationships" factor as well.

S9.5.11 Positions may score anywhere within the range for a classification, reflecting the broad range of work character within each classification level. It is unlikely that all positions within an employer would consistently score at the high end or low end of each classification.

Score and Classification Level

S9.5.12 A total score will be tallied in regard to the evaluation of the position, which will then be allocated to a classification level as outlined in the following table.

Score	Classification Level
18 – 27	Level 1
28 – 45	Level 2
46 – 63	Level 3
64 – 81	Level 4
82 – 99	Level 5
100 – 117	Level 6
118 – 135	Level 7

Borderline Scores

S9.5.13 Some positions will score within the range for a proposed classification level while others may score on the 'borderline', namely:

- (e) the total score is just below the maximum (eg. 62 or 63 for Level 3); or
- (f) just above the minimum score (eg. 64 or 65 of Level 4) for a particular classification.

S9.5.14 If a position scores just above the minimum score, then it is necessary to revisit the evaluation to ensure that all the relevant information has been gathered and considered and it may be necessary to undertake a further evaluation of the position.

S9.5.15 If the position continues to be on the minimum score for a particular level, then consideration needs to be given to position redesign.

S9.5.16 Further, if the position continues to be at the top of the scoring range, then the same principle applies and:

- (a) a position analysis should look broadly at the position; and
- (b) the position could be redesigned to spread across a few positions, which may be the better outcome for the employer as a means of balancing classification and a more efficient use of resources.

Flow Chart

S9.5.17 A flow chart of the process of evaluating the is outlined at ATTACHMENT 3.

S11.1 Term-Time Definition

S11.1.1 Term-time employee is an employee who may be employed on a continuing basis or on a fixed-term basis (as defined below) and is engaged to work:-

- (a) thirty-eight (38) ordinary hours per week but less than fifty-two (52) weeks per annum; or
- (b) less than thirty-eight (38) ordinary hours per week and less than fifty-two (52) weeks per annum,

S11.2 Contract of Employment

S11.2.1 Employees offered term-time employment, as described in this Agreement, will be advised in writing, at the point of engagement and at other times when varied in accordance with this Agreement, the following:-

- (a) the nature of engagement as a term-time employee
- (b) the weeks the term-time employee is to be employed.
- (c) the days of the week the term-time employee is to be employed.
- (d) the normal starting and finishing time for each day's employment.
- (e) the duration of the engagement in respect of employment for a fixed-term.

S11.3 Employment Conditions for Term-Time Employees

S11.3.1 Where an employee is employed on a term-time basis, the employee will be entitled to be paid an hourly rate for ordinary hours worked equal to the appropriate weekly full-time rate divided by thirty-eight (38).

S11.3.2 Employees under this subclause will be entitled to receive pro rata entitlements to annual leave and personal/carer's leave in accordance with clauses S11.6 and S11.7 within this Schedule.

S11.3.3 Where a public holiday falls on a day upon which an employee is normally employed, that employee will be paid the appropriate rate for the number of hours normally worked on that day.

S11.4 Term Time Employees - Additional Hours

S11.4.1 Where an employer identifies either additional hours to be worked, or additional work to be performed, (either short or long term) the employer must (in the first instance) thoroughly investigate and consider whether such additional hours or work can be performed by an existing term time employee.

S11.4.2 So as to avoid doubt the expressions "additional hours" and "additional work" include both work during periods when students are in attendance and periods of vacation.

S11.4.3 The employer will, subject to subclause 4, offer such additional hours or work to an existing term time employee (or employees).

S11.4.4 Nothing in this clause will require an employer to offer additional hours or work to an employee where:

- (a) The additional hours or work would result in the employee working more than the maximum number of ordinary hours permitted by this Agreement; or
- (b) It is impracticable, having regard to both the needs of the school and the nature of the work, to offer such additional hours or work to a particular employee (or employees).

S11.4.5 An employee who is offered additional hours or additional work may, at their discretion, accept or decline the offer.

S11.5 Accrued Hours

S11.5.1 Where an employer authorises additional hours to be worked by an employee beyond the normal hours worked, these hours may be accrued on an agreed basis between the employer and the employee. These accrued hours must be availed of during school vacation periods except where the employer, at the request of the employee, approves that accrued hours be taken at alternative times. The hours accrued will be paid at the ordinary time rate.

S11.5.2 All employees will have a zero balance of accrued hours at the beginning of each twelve (12) month cycle. A twelve (12) month cycle is taken to begin on the first day following the school vacation period in January and extending through to the last day of the school vacation period in the next year. Any accrued hours not taken prior to the completion of each twelve (12) month cycle will be paid to the employee.

S11.5.3 Notwithstanding the above, the annual leave loading will be paid on no more than four (4) weeks.

S11.5.4 On resignation, employees must avail themselves of any accrued hours prior to the resignation taking effect. In special or extenuating circumstances, if the employee is unable to avail themselves of accrued hours, these accrued hours will be paid to the employee upon resignation.

S11.6 Personal/carer's leave for Term-Time Employees

S11.6.1 Term-time employees will be entitled to pro rata personal/carer's leave calculated on the following basis:-

- (a) for each completed year of service – seventy-six (76) hours x ordinary hours worked per week ÷ thirty-eight (38);
- (b) for each completed period of 5.2 weeks in respect of an incomplete year of service - 7.6 hours x ordinary hours worked per week ÷ thirty-eight (38)

S11.7 Annual Leave for Term-Time Employees

- (a) The accrual rate of annual leave for full-time employees will be one hundred and fifty-two (152) hours per annum (i.e. four (4) weeks annual leave per annum on a thirty-eight (38) hour week basis).
- (b) An employee's entitlement to paid annual leave accrues progressively during a year of service according to the employee's ordinary hours of work, and accumulates from year to year. Service includes a period when annual leave is taken by the employee. The calculation of the entitlement to such leave is set out in paragraphs (d) and (e).
- (c) Term-time employees will at the end of the initial school year in which they are employed be entitled to annual leave calculated as follows:
 - (i) annual leave due to the employee will be determined using the following formula:

$$\frac{A}{\text{Fifty-two (52)}} \times \text{Four (4) weeks} = \text{weeks of annual leave}$$

Where: A = number of weeks worked during that year

- (ii) the number of weeks of annual leave determined using the formula in paragraph (c)(i) will be paid for as follows:

weeks of annual leave x B x the hourly rate applicable at the time

Where B = average hours worked per week during that year

- (d) Term-time employees will at the end of each subsequent school year in which they are employed be entitled to annual leave calculated as follows:

- (i) annual leave due to the employee will be determined using the following formula:

$$\frac{C}{\text{Fifty-two (52)}} \times \text{Four (4) weeks} = \text{weeks of annual leave}$$

Where: C = number of weeks worked during that year plus the number of weeks of annual leave determined using the formula in paragraph (c)(i).

- (ii) The number of weeks of annual leave determined using the formula in paragraph (d)(i) will be paid for as follows:

weeks of annual leave x B x the hourly rate applicable at the time

Where B = average hours worked per week during that year

- (e) Subject to paragraph (a), annual leave will be taken by term-time employees during school vacation periods unless otherwise agreed between the employer and employee.
- (f) If an employee and employer so agree, annual leave may be taken wholly or partly in advance before the employee has become entitled to annual leave subject to the following:
 - (i) An employee who has taken in advance the whole of the annual leave that would be due at the end of a school year, is not entitled to any further annual leave at the end of that school year.
 - (ii) An employee who has taken in advance part of the annual leave that would be due at the end of a school year, becomes entitled at the end of that school year to the part of the annual leave not already taken.
- (g) Annual leave will be exclusive of any public holiday which may occur during the period of that leave and will be paid for by the employer in accordance with current provisions.

S11.7.2 Calculation of Annual Leave Pay

In respect to annual leave entitlements to which this clause applies, annual leave pay (including any proportionate payments) will comprise:

- (a) The employee's ordinary wage rate as prescribed by this Agreement for the period of the annual leave; and
- (b) A further amount calculated at the rate of seventeen and one-half percent (17 ½%) of the amounts referred to in provision (a) of this subclause.

S11.7.3 Payment of Annual Leave Accrual on Termination of Employment

- (a) If a term-time employee is dismissed by the employer or voluntarily leaves employment after any leave has become due, and without such leave having been taken, such employee will be entitled in lieu thereof to a sum equal to salary computed at the rate of wages which the employee was earning at the date of such dismissal or leaving calculated in accordance with subclause 2.

- (b) If the employment of any employee is terminated before the expiration of a full school year, such employee will be paid, in addition to all other amounts due to the employee, an amount equal to one-twelfth of ordinary pay for the period of employment calculated in accordance with subclause 2.
- (c) If any such leave will not have been taken as it falls due from time to time, such leave will be cumulative from year to year for a period not exceeding two (2) years.
- (d) Such annual holiday will be exclusive of any statutory holiday which may occur during the period of that annual holiday and will be paid for by the employer in accordance with current provisions.

S11.8 Payment of Public Holidays – Term-Time Employees

The following provisions will apply to an employee who is employed on either a continuing term-time basis or on successive fixed-term term-time contracts.

- S11.8.1 Where a public holiday falls on a day where a term-time employee normally would be expected to work, then that employee will be paid for the hours normally rostered to work for that day.
- S11.8.2 Employees, other than new employees, will be paid for their normal rostered hours for any public holiday that occurs on the day before the employee's first day of work for that term and for any public holiday that occurs on the day after the employee's last day of work for that term if they are normally rostered to work on that day.
- S11.8.3 Term-time employees commencing employment with a new employer will be paid from their first day of work. If the preceding day is a public holiday they will not be paid for the public holiday. - S11.8.4 The public holiday(s) paid in accordance with these provisions will be included in the calculation of the employee's length of service for all purposes.

Classification Criteria

S13.3.2 The Classification criteria (competency, supervision and qualifications/experience) in Attachment 1 of this Schedule will be used to determine the appropriate classification level.

The criteria at each level must be read as a whole to gain an understanding of the position and the performance requirements. Isolated criteria should not be used to justify the classification of a position.

S13.3.4 The key issue to be looked at in properly classifying a position is the level of initiative, responsibility / accountability, competency and skill that an employee is required to exercise in performing the employee's work within the parameters of the criteria, read as a whole, of the position.

S13.3.5 The "Description of Skills and Duties" sets out detail of typical skills and duties at each level. This document aligns the competencies with the typical skills and duties which may be exercised by employees. As such it is to be read alongside the classification criteria for the purpose of classifying a position.

S13.3.6 The indicative duties are a non-exhaustive list of job titles that may be comprehended within the particular level. They are an indicative guide only and at any particular level employees may be expected to undertake duties of any level lower than their own. Employees at any particular level may perform/utilise one such duty or more than one depending on the particular work allocated to them. Indicative duties should not be used as the primary determinant in classifying employees.

- S13.3.7 Level 0 in the structure will be applied as a level at which employees learn and gain competency in the basic skills required by the employer. In the event that the increased skills/competency are utilised by the employer, progression through the structure may be possible.

Re-Classification Process

Maximum Rostered Hours per annum 1824

For the purposes of this clause, the number of weeks in a school year (variable X) is calculated as:

Number of weeks in Term 1 + Number of weeks in Term 2 + Number of weeks in Term 3 +
Number of weeks in Term 4 = X

$1824 \div X = Y$

For example: If the number of weeks in a particular school year is thirty-eight (38), the formula would be $1824 \div 38 = 48$. Therefore, a full-time boarding employee may be rostered to work up to 48 hours per week over thirty-eight (38) weeks.

S14.12.3 Notwithstanding subclauses 1 and 2, an employee's roster cannot be changed where it would result in the employee becoming ineligible for payment on a public holiday, in circumstances where the employee would otherwise have been rostered to work on that day, other than at the election of the employee.

S14.13 Overtime and Time off in Lieu

S14.13.1 The employer may require an employee to work reasonable additional hours.
